Potato Misstatements Made by W. S. Loggie

Respecting Armstrong & Ferguson's Potato Contract
Refuted by Member of Firm

Copy of letter addressed to W. S. Loggie refuting his misstatements in connection with the Armstrong & Ferguson Potato Contract:

Newcastle, N. B., March 20, 1916
W. S. Loggie, M. P.
Ottawa, Ont.

Sir:
In the issue of "The Daily Telegraph" of St. John, N. B., dated

March 18th, 1916, there appears, under the caption "Potatoes at $7.00 per Barrel from Fictitious Firm," founded on a statement made by you, on the floor of the House on March 17th, 1916, in which you asserted that the firm of Armstrong & Ferguson, of Newcastle, N. B., supplied potatoes to the Militia Department at seven cents per pound, and you further asserted that the Government paid the money to the firm of Armstrong & Ferguson which was a firm that did not exist. I, as a member of the firm of Armstrong & Ferguson, wish to inform you that both these statements made by you are "Absolutely False," and for your information, please be informed that the highest price paid Armstrong & Ferguson for potatoes, was 4½ cents per pound for new potatoes, from 8th August to 8th October 1914, and one cent per pound from 23rd October 1914 to 7th April 1915, when the contract expired.

I also wish to draw your attention to your ignorance of the multiplication table, because as a matter of fact a barrel of potatoes at 7 cents per pound would be worth $12.60 instead of $7.00 as stated by you.

Furthermore there was no patronage used to secure the contract for the firm of Armstrong & Ferguson, as our tender being the lowest was accepted.

My intention is to publish this letter addressed to you in the "Union Advocate" and "North Shore Leader," two papers published in the Town of Newcastle, N. B.

In consideration of the above, there is no alternative for you, but to offer an apology on the floor of the House and through the press, to both the Government, to which you are in opposition, and to me, a member of the firm of Armstrong & Ferguson, which was, on the 24th day of October, 1914, dissolved by mutual assent, but whose members are still doing business individually, in the town of Newcastle, N. B.

I will await your apology.

Yours,
W. M. FERGUSON.
P. S.—I am enclosing Sir Thomas White, Finance Minister, a copy of this letter, asking him to give its contents to Parliament, in the event of your inability, lack of manhood, preventing you from doing so.

W. F.
