The London Standard publishes a draft of the government's proposed redistribution scheme. By it the representation of England in Parliament is increased 110, and that of Scotland 10, while Ireland's representation remains unchanged as to number; but Trales. Clonmell, Dungarvan, Carlow, Athlone, Coleraine, New Roes, Ennis, Kineale, Bandon, Toughall, Enniskillen, Mallow, Dungannon, Downpatrick, and Port Arlangton are all disfranchised. The county of Cork gains four members, Mayo, Down, Galway and Antrim gain two each, Donegal, Kerry, Tyrone and Tipperary gain one cach, and the city of Dublin gains two. The publication of the facts showing the disfranchisement of cities, while there is no gain in total Irish representation, creates a tremendous sensation.
