Saltford.
 Miss Effie Martin is visiting friends in Seaford at present.
 Robert Green arrived home on Saturday, after an absence of about two years.
 Miss E. H. Thomas, of Clinton, was visiting friends here for a few days last week.
 Mrs. Wesley Detmer, of West Flamboro, arrived here a few days ago to pay a visit to her friends and relations.

Ashfield.
 W. A. Hackett has been re-engaged to teach in S. S. No. 16 for 1886.
 The Ball family jubilee singers held meetings in the Ashfield Methodist church. They are grand singers.
 Jas. Vint, of the 10th con., has purchased 100 acres on the 4th con., West Wawanosh, and has his own about sold.
 TINY TWINS.—Much interest has been created over the advent of a pair of twins in an Ashfield household. They weigh only 4 lbs. One is a tiny maggot of only 1 1/2 lbs. The little ones are alive, and likely to thrive. The neighbors are flocking to see the two wee stragglers, the smallest of which could almost be hidden in the hand of the stalwart reeve.

Auburn.
 John Ferguson's shop is completed, and he will start work this week.
 Some of our local sports were on the track of a wildcat in the Maitland block last week, but failed to come up to the feline.
 The milk cows are doing well, and the winter work is running full blast. The milkwrights have all left except Wm. Bullman, who is putting in a chip elevator.

J. C. Richards, harness maker, has sold his shop and lot to Geo. Densted, tinmith, of Blith. Mr. D. takes possession on the 1st of March, 1886, and comes well recommended.

Goderich Township.
 On the night of Saturday or Sunday last, the house of Donald Bruce, Bayfield road, was entered by forcing of the lock, and a number of articles stolen therefrom. The old gentleman, who is blind, has resided for some time with Mrs. Dunlop. The discovery was made by David McBrien, who with two others examined the premises, and found that among the articles missing were some new blankets, a family Bible, a large looking glass, and some smaller articles. The discovery was not made till Monday evening, or the sneak thief might have been intercepted in his flight. The supposed robber was from Michigan, and has been paying a flying visit to the scenes of his childhood.

Leeburn.
 James McMann, jr., recently shot a large wildcat.
 SICKNESS.—Mrs. Brown was very ill during last week, but is now convalescent.
 EDUCATIONAL.—J. R. Miller, I. P. S., visited the Leeburn school last Friday, and expressed himself well pleased with both the discipline and proficiency of the pupils.
 RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Mr. Calvert has moved from Pearl-field farm, and is now domiciled in his new house recently erected on Broadview farm. E. Shaw will work Pearl-field farm on shares with its owner, and S. Gibson, of Dunlop, has rented the house.

While plowing a few days ago James Foley overturned a nest of snakes on the number of 50, both great and small, in a half torpid condition. With the aid of a large stick it took but little time to dispatch them.

DEATHS.
 At Goderich, on Monday, Nov. 30, the wife of Mr. F. Jordan, of a son.
MARRIAGES.
 At the residence of the bride's father, on Wednesday, 11th of November, by Elder D. Prosser, Mr. Jno. Wallace, jeweller, of the village of Lockport, County of Bruce, to Miss Matilda, daughter of Wm. Mainprize, Sec. of the Township of East Gwillimbury.

At the Manse, in Manchester, on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, by Rev. James Fritchard, Mr. James Clark Strachan, to Miss Agnes Elizabeth Old, all of the township of Colborne.

DEATHS.
 In Essex Centre, on Monday, Nov. 22nd, Thomas G. Johnston, fourth son of Mr. James Johnston, Goderich township, aged 26 years.
