(3) The mutual support which individual battalions afforded each other during the operations was a marked feature of the attack. (4) Our heavy artillery was very effective. Apart from observed results, prisoners' statements confirm the accuracy of our fire and the damage caused by it.

(5) Before noon we had captured he whole of the village of Neuve Chapelle and our infantry at once proceeded to confirm and extend the local advantage gained. By dusk the whole labyrinth of trenches on a front of about 4 000 yards was in our hands, and we had established ourselves about 1.200 vards beyond the enemy's advanced trenches. The number of German prisoners captured and brought into headquarters during the day was 750. There are probably more to come in. (6) During the 11th inst., the enemy nade repeated efforts to recover the ground he had lost. All his counter attacks have been repulsed with heavy ess. We continue to make steady progress.

Hard fighting is still going on. (7) The local initiative displayed by ur troops daily is admirable and says much for the spirit which animates the army. The success achieved on ample of this spirit.
