PARIS, via St. Pierre, July 14. In Belgium, after the reported bombardment of last night's communiqué, the Germans attacked the trenches taken by the British troops southwest of Piken during the night of the 5th and 6th, on the east bank of the canal. They were easily repulsed. In the region north of Arras there was only a few fights with hand grenades during the night, north of the Castle of Carleu and at the Labyrinth. Arras and Soissons have been bombarded by big calibre shells. In the Somme region at Frise and at Fay, west of Peronne, as well as in Champagne, near Perthes, there has been mine fighting. In the Argonne, the German attacks, which concentrated in the region between Marie Therese and Haute Chevalerie, were completely stopped. Between the Meuse and Moselle in Apremont forest, were gun shooting and cannonade without infantry action. On the remainder of the front, nothing to report.

ACTIVITY ON WEST FRONT.

of pronounced military activity. The German struggle for Verdun is regarded by observers on the side of the Entente Allies as on in earnest, with assaults in both the Argonne and the Woevre.

AUSTRIAN TREACHERY EXPOSED

ROME, July 14. A semi-official announcement is published in Rome, to the effect that when Italy's entrance into the conflict appeared inevitable, Austria-Hungary first attempted to make a separate peace with Serbia, and then tried to conclude an armistice which would allow her to remove her troops from the Serbian frontier, is causing a deep impression in Italy. Although these negotiations have only leaked out, and at present is a semi-official announcement, considering the caution of the Italian foreign office, it is taken by the Italian press to indicate that the Italian press to indicate that the Italian Government possesses proofs of its assertion.

DOES HONOR TO MARSEILLAISE COMPOSER

PARIS, July 14. With impressive ceremony the remains of Captain Claude Rouget de Lisle, composer of the Marseillaise, were placed to-day in the Hotel des Invalides. Thousands stood with heads uncovered as the coffin upon a gun-carriage of the Revolutionary period, passed under the Arc de Triomphe, down the Avenue des Champs Elysees, across the Alexander Bridge to the Esplanade.

ITALIAN SUCCESSES.

GENEVA, July 14. Italians captured two miles of Austrian trenches in the Carnic Alps, according to a despatch received to-day by the Tribune from Villach, an Austrian town on the River Drave. Alpine troops, these advances say, dragged their artillery to the heights near Roskof, which is situated at an altitude of 6,600 feet. The Italians are said to have captured two important ports, south of Gorizia.

AUSTRIA'S STATEMENT.

VIENNA, July 14. The general situation in the Russian theatre of war is unchanged. In the Italian theatre of war, with the exception of artillery engagements and skirmishes, there has been no events either on the south or west front.

DUBLIN AND HOME RULE.

DUBLIN, July 14. By a vote of 30 to 22, the City Corporation to-day refused to endorse a resolution demanding that Home Rule shall be put into operation in the whole of Ireland on the 17th September next. By the same majority the Corporation adopted an amendment, expressing confidence in Redmond to select the speediest means and the proper moment to bring the settlement into operation. Though the mover of the original resolution protested, there was nothing inimical to Redmond in it, the majority seemed mischievous in the suggestion of dissection in the Nationalist ranks. A disorderly scene followed the announcement of the result of the vote, and the City Councilors had to be forcibly prevented from engaging in fistfights.

GERMAN POSSESSIONS OCCUPIED

LONDON, July 14. Four hundred and fifty thousand square miles of German colonial possessions have been occupied by the Entente Allies during the war. This official estimate was announced to-day by the British Secretary for the Colonies.

LONDON, July 14. Two alleged spies were arrested to-day, and tried by court-martial, on a charge of attempting to communicate information about the British fleet, according to an announcement to-day by the British Official Press Bureau.

GERMAN NEWSPAPERS ON THE RESULT.

LONDON, July 14. The Times, surveying recent press comments, says: The German newspapers display greater confidence and satisfaction than at any time since the outbreak of the war. The military situation on all fronts is represented to be very favorable. The diplomatic situation, as regards especially both the United States and the Balkan countries, is described as hopeful. Above all, the German press maintains that Britain, owing to military disappointments and her lack of preparation, is involved in difficulties for which no remedy can be found, and which practically destroy all hope of victory for the Allied cause.

DISCUSSING THE NOTE.

BERLIN, July 14. Conflicting reports of the reception of Germany's note to the United States Government, concerning Germany's submarine warfare, still keep the majority of the afternoon newspapers from commenting on it.

Woman's Hair Reaches to Knees

A Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow.

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of a marvelously beautiful hair, which, when loosened from its coils, falls to her knees. Moreover it is of soft, silky and fluffy texture and in color a glorious glossy gold. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness. Urged to tell how she had obtained this wonderful growth in so short a time, she said: "Had anyone told me such marvelous results could be accomplished so quickly, I positively would not have believed it. Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, actually exposing the bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in colour, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried fully a dozen different hair tonics, but they were all the same and never did me a bit of good. One day I chanced to read in my home paper of a simple home prescription to make the hair grow, was recommended by a well-known physician. It said that by taking ordinary Lavona de Compose and mixing with Day Rum and Menthol Crystals and applying to the scalp each night with the finger tips that new hair would grow very rapidly. I decided to try it and I had my druggist mix 2 oz. of the Lavona de Compose with 6 oz. of Day Rum and ¼ dram of Menthol Crystals, and started to use it. My hair quickly began to grow. First the hair stopped falling, the itching ceased and the dandruff disappeared. Then tiny little hairs appeared all over my scalp. These grew and grew as though nothing would ever stop them. They are growing yet, and while, of course, I have used the treatment steadily and expect to continue it, at least until my hair reaches the floor. I might have stopped at this point, but I have been perfectly satisfied at the end of three months. I think that any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this prescription as I have recommended it to several friends, and all are delighted with the result. The prescription is very inexpensive and any druggist can fill it."

Charity Dance.

To wind-up business in connection with their dance held recently in the Prince's Rink in aid of the city poor, the L. S. P. U. Committee met last night. Votes of thanks were passed to G. Summers, the British Society, St. W. LeMessurier, H. Wilson, W. J. Higgins, Inspector General Sullivan, Manager Donnelly of the Prince's Rink and Miss Kavanagh for helping to make the event the success it was. The committee will meet again next week to consider the holding of another such dance for charity.

Pressure Too Great.

An unsuccessful attempt to refloat the submerged steamer Stella Maris was made yesterday afternoon. The pumps worked satisfactorily, but when the water was pumped off to the ship's decks, it was found that the coffer dam was unable to withstand the heavy pressure. The defects in the coffer dam will be remedied to-day and it is expected that the next attempt at refloating the ship will be successful.
