BROKEN PLATES REPAIRED.

Well equipped Dental Offices can now repair plates. A broken tooth is no reason why a plate should be discarded. A new tooth, or several of them, can be vulcanized onto the old plate and make the service absolutely as good as ever. If you meet with an accident that injures your plate in any way, consult your dentist about repairs before you discard it for a new one. You can often prevent a needless expense. jne27,tu,th,tf

for Alice Calhoun*"THE MATRIMONIAL WEB" IS WORK OF GRAHAM BAKER.

One of the oldest towns on the Atlantic coast is used for exterior scenes in the Alice Calhoun production, "The Matrimonial Web" which will be shown at the Nickel Theatre tonight. The story by C. Graham Baker has its locale in a quaint fishing village. Miss Calhoun's entire supporting company, including Joseph Striker, her leading man, William R. Hatch, Charles Mackay, Armand Cortez, Dick Lee and many others, spent several weeks at Rockport, Maine, making scenes for this quaint production.

The story is one of unusual interest and presents the star in many new phases of her emotional ability, proving her to be a player not confined to any particular type production. In "The Matrimonial Web" she appears first as the daughter of a revenue agent, and unsophisticated country girl. In order to save her father's position, and unknown to him, she attempts to round up a band of smugglers. In seeking clues, the trail leads her into some of the dives of the underworld. She mixes with the frequenters of these dives, and is picked up by a man who has a double purpose inducing her to spend the night upon an island where the smuggler is at work. Here she meets the hero and an interesting love story develops. The picture is full of action and beautiful scenic backgrounds a large portion of the scenes being taken out of doors. For the most part the interiors are in the shack of the smuggler but there are nevertheless, several magnificent interiors showing the palatial home of the hero's parents and the girl who attempts to trick the hero into marrying her.

THE BUSY SUMMER COTTAGE.
Our friends have automobiles now. The summer cottage where we went to rest beside the water's blue in peace and indolent content. Is but an hour's swift ride away, so bright and early Sunday morn. Before the breakfast eggs are cooked we hear the knocking of the horn.

We must have bathing suits for ten, although our family numbers four. Beds must be made for all who come, although father sleeps upon the floor. Dishes and knives and forks and spoons are gathered in one huge display. For we must be prepared to feed the visitors who come our way.

From Friday noon till Monday morn full many a weary trip I take. Rowing the women and their babes upon the bosom of the lake; And by that law which rules a host I'm at the mercy of the crew. I must, until they say goodbye, do everything they wish to do.

The chef in yonder large hotel is not a busier man than I. The fish for fifteen hungry mouths it is my duty now to fry. And thus my glad vacation time from dawn to dusk is filled with chores. For friends have made our resting spot the busiest place in all outdoors.

Personal.

Three of the British explorers who are attempting to climb Mount Everest have established a new record. Less than a week ago it was announced that one party of three had reached a height of 26,800 feet, which was 2,200 feet better than the climb the Duke of Abruzzi accomplished. The new record now achieved by another party of three, and reported in a despatch copyrighted by the Mount Everest Committee through the London Times, is 400 feet higher, and brings the climbers within 1,800 feet of the top of the world.
