DRESS and MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End.
To the Ladies:
We have during the past two years contemplated the establishment of a Dress Making Department, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge, has up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so.
We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured the services of Miss Morrison, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect.
Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and fitter in one of the leading Fashionable Dress-making Establishments in the City of Toronto.
Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle-maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities.
Orders for these departments will be received on and after Monday next, the 4th of May.
A. O. BUCHANAN, Fashionable West End Dress, Mantle and Millinery Establishment.

Stanley, arrested in Cleveland with a portion of the stolen goods in his possession, has been committed there for trial.

Ministerial Installation.

Last night (Thursday), the services in connection with the installation of the Rev. Wm. Manchee, as minister of the Congregational body in this Town, were held. The Rev. Wm. Clarke presided, and there were present the Revs. H. Marling, Toronto; W. H. Allworth, Paris; John Wood, Brantford; J. Unsworth, Georgetown; and W. F. Clarke, the retiring minister; also, from other denominations, the Revs. Messrs. Torrance, Wardrop, Ball, Hogg, Mackie, and Howie. The church was moderately well filled.
After devotional exercises somewhat too deliberate and lengthy for the lateness of the hour, the Rev. John Wood, of Brantford, delivered an address expounding the principles of the Congregational body. He referred to 1 Timothy iii, 15, and based his remarks chiefly upon these three points:—1st, That the House of God was the home of all God's people; 2nd, That it is governed by certain rules; and 3rd, that these rules are for the spread and perpetuation of Divine truth.
The questions to the pastor were then put by the Rev. W. H. Allworth. To the first, as to his reasons for accepting the call, Mr. Manchee replied by reading a statement of the circumstances connected therewith. In January last he received a communication through Mr. Marling, of Toronto, requesting him to officiate for two weeks in the pulpit of the church at Guelph. This was followed by a request to continue his ministrations through the month of February, and ultimately by a call upon the 1st of April. Certain members of the congregation were very desirous that the retiring minister, Mr. Clarke, should remain, and therefore, the call, though of a majority, was not unanimous; but as the reasons for this had no root in objections to himself personally, and as he had already had Mr. Clarke's frank statement that it was impossible for the latter to remain, he felt justified in accepting the call. He felt a reluctance to doing so for other reasons—some having reference to his being a stranger in Canada; but after conference with brethren of the ministry, and earnest prayer, he had overcome this feeling. It was subsequently thought desirable, in view of a near meeting of a committee of the church, in reference to some matters personally affecting him, that he should place his call again in the hands of the church. He cordially concurred in this. At that meeting, on the 26th June, the call was unanimously renewed, and he had accepted it. These were the causes why the present ceremony had been so long delayed.
Mr. Allworth put the second question, as to the views of Mr. Manchee regarding the doctrine and government of the church. In reply Mr. Manchee read a clear and lucid statement embodying these.
After a dedicatory prayer, the Rev. Mr. Unsworth extended the right hand of fellowship to Mr. Manchee, on behalf of the Congregational pastors, and Mr. Wardrop gave a similar greeting as the representative of the Presbyterian ministers.
The Rev. W. F. Clarke proceeded to deliver the "Address to the Minister," Commencing with a few graceful deprecatory remarks, he proceeded to say that much personal piety was the prerequisite for the office of a Christian pastor. The brightest ornaments of the church were peculiarly holy and devoted men. This was peculiarly necessary to a man's efficiency in the ministry, and even the hardened sinner would catch the holy fire from the kindling eye and glowing face of the zealous pastor. Next to piety came preaching, the chief official duty of the pastor. It was said the pulpit was on the wane, and that truth was flowing through other channels, especially through the religious press; and he would specify some of the defects which should be carefully avoided. His brother should strive after deep earnestness, simplicity and directness; thorough and intense evangelicism; a determination to administer to win souls, rather than gain men's praise. He had intended to refer to the pastorate and pastoral work generally, but he would forbear. He closed an eloquent speech by quoting 2 Tim. iv, 1 to 5. The Rev. F. H. Marling, of Toronto, delivered the "address to the people." His few remarks would be an exhortation to answer the question: How did the Lord Jesus Christ wish them to receive their minister; what would he have them to do? Speaking of the care and love and labor bestowed by the Lord upon the training of the Apostles for the ministry, he said Let us take them as a type to them the initiatory incidents of the Apostolic ministry, that they might gain a knowledge of our Lord's will and mind on this subject. Those men were erring and sinful men like ourselves, and these were men He chose to carry on the work, and no doubt men like these, able to sympathize with the imperfection of those whom they addressed, would make better ministers than even an angel would. It seemed to him that they should in the first place understand that their pastor was a man, and not an angel; they should search out and magnify his imperfections; nor should they on the other hand, refuse to see any imperfection whatever in a beloved minister, like those who love too wisely but too well. Let them remember that the piety of the minister needs to be sustained, and that their christian eyes would often him, whilst their ungodly or worldly lives would chill his heart and depress his spirit. No good and charitable deed that they could do but would react upon the spirit of this minister of theirs. God would watch over their course, and they should act toward their pastor that they could look their Lord in the face and not be ashamed. The speaker referred to the duties of the congregation in a temporal aspect, and proceeded to refer to the duty of prayer. A few words of approval and encouragement from too-reticent brethren were often very precious to the minister; even the great, strong, brave man Paul was not above this. If their minister was doing themselves or their friends any good,—let them not be afraid to tell him of it. Mr. Manchee possesses a particularly deep and sonorous voice, and his clear intonations fall pleasantly on the ear.

The meeting concluded with the Doxology.

OUTSIDE SPORTS.
THE LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP.
The mighty question of the Championship of the World is to be settled in this little town of ours—so say the announcements of the forthcoming lacrosse match between the MONTREAL SHAMROCKS and the CAUGHNAWAGA INDIANS. This match will undoubtedly be the most exciting and interesting match that has ever been played in Guelph. For a long time the SHAMROCKS have resisted all efforts to wrest the championship from them, and have proved their prowess in several well fought games with the Toronto men and other clubs, both in Montreal and on the Toronto Grounds, whilst their present opponents, the CAUGHNAWAGAS are known as very fine players. This great exhibition of lacrosse will be a diversity from the base-ball which is our great athletic staple. See adv.

BASE BALL.
PROFESSIONAL GAMES.
The fourth game between the PHILADELPHIA and the ATLANTIC, played on the Union Grounds, in Brooklyn, on Wednesday afternoon, resulted in the defeat of the ATLANTIC by a score of 12 to 3. Time 1h. 30m. Field errors, ATLANTIC 11, PHILADELPHIA 2. Six straight whiteballs were given the ATLANTIC.

LOCALS.
THE BREWERS AND BAR-TENDERS
played their third game yesterday afternoon on the grounds near Sleeman's Brewery, the former winning by a score of 18 to 15. By the following score it will be observed that a very fine fielding game was played by the BREWERS up to the eighth inning, when, as our informant says, the sun came out from behind a cloud, staying them in the face and totally demoralizing them. The BREWERS have now won three straight games from the BAR TENDERS, and now we would advise the latter to leave the handlers of the malt alone until they can harness up a better nine. Mr. Robert Jamieson acted as umpire satisfactorily, and Mr. S. Jackson as scorer; time 2 hours and 10 minutes. The following is the score:

A match game is on the tapis between the PARKER HOUSE and WELLINGTON HOTEL, players to be selected out of the habitués of each house. As there is a great deal of good-natured rivalry existing between these two of our most popular hotels, and some good players inhabiting each, a lively game is on the ground. They expect to get the Maple Leaf Ground, and we hope they will succeed.

Town and County News.

THREE WILL BE a social in connection with Knox Church to night, in the grounds of Mr. Williamson.
SOLD OUT.—We learn that Mr. J. L. Stewart has disposed of his marble business and stock to Messrs. Hearn & Kennedy, of the Wellington Marble Works, St. George's Square. Mr. Stewart contemplates taking up his residence in Illinois.
FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday week a very sad accident happened at a raising in the neighbourhood of Parker. Whilst the men were lifting one of the beams a man by the name of John Moynough was attending to one of the shores, when it slipped, and the beam fell, breaking his arm almost instantly. He leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss.
THE TWELFTH.—A meeting of Orange men will be held in the lodge room to-morrow morning at seven o'clock, this early hour being for the convenience of members who wish to leave town. At two in the afternoon the event of the day will be the raising of the Great Western Hotel, when the "pious, glorious and immortal memory" will be drunk, with other loyal toasts, and suitable speeches will be delivered.
THE BAZAAR.—The Baptist ladies were busily engaged in preparation this morning in Mr. Galloway's old store, Wyndham street, and will be fully organized this afternoon. The room is handsomely decorated with a profusion of evergreens, imparting a pleasant fragrance to the air, and some handsome vases of flowers added to the general effect. Some fine specimens of ladies' work are already displayed.
THE EARTHQUAKE which was slightly felt in Hamilton, Dundas, & Georgetown appears to have been quite a lively vibration in Buffalo, Lockport and Titusville, although the damage was confined to the throwing down and breaking of a few coal oil lamps and other brittle ware. We are informed to slight tremor of the earth was distinctly felt in Guelph, on the east side of the river.

To the Editor of The Daily Mercury.
Sir,—Can you inform me through THE MERCURY whether we have a Board of Health in this town, and, if we have, what are their duties supposed to be? I ask these questions for this reason: About four or five weeks ago a petition was sent in to the Board of Health, very numerously signed by residents of the East Ward, complaining of the fearful stench arising from the pig-yard attached to Allan's Distillery, and asking that said nuisance be removed before the warm weather set in. Although this petition was sent in over a month ago they have never taken any action in the matter up to the present time.
Besides this, all the washings from the cattle sheds and pig pens are run into the river. I was under the impression that there was a law for force in this Province making it an offence punishable by a heavy fine for any person to empty any washings into our rivers; and, if such a law is in force, I think there is much need of applying it in this case, for during the four or five weeks that have passed since Mr. Present has finished his new dam there is an accumulation of several inches of filthy washings in the bed of the river, and the surface of the water is covered with a thick scum of the same kind.
If any of the gentlemen who comprise the Board of Health think that we are complaining without cause, if they will take a walk some morning before seven o'clock or some fine still evening down Neeve Street as far as the junction of Ontario Street, or around by Queen Street to the same place, I think they will have all doubts removed, and will be thoroughly convinced that something ought to be done immediately to remove so great a nuisance from our midst.

A match game is on the tapis between the PARKER HOUSE and WELLINGTON HOTEL, players to be selected out of the habitués of each house. As there is a great deal of good-natured rivalry existing between these two of our most popular hotels, and some good players inhabiting each, a lively game is on the ground. They expect to get the Maple Leaf Ground, and we hope they will succeed.

THE BREWERS AND BAR-TENDERS

played their third game yesterday afternoon on the grounds near Sleeman's Brewery, the former winning by a score of 18 to 15. By the following score it will be observed that a very fine fielding game was played by the BREWERS up to the eighth inning, when, as our informant says, the sun came out from behind a cloud, staying them in the face and totally demoralizing them. The BREWERS have now won three straight games from the BAR TENDERS, and now we would advise the latter to leave the handlers of the malt alone until they can harness up a better nine. Mr. Robert Jamieson acted as umpire satisfactorily, and Mr. S. Jackson as scorer; time 2 hours and 10 minutes. The following is the score:
