

WHITE SOX ARE WORLD CHAMPIONS

GIANTS KICKED OVER BALL CHAMPIONSHIP BY BAD PLAY

ZIMMERMAN'S BONEHEAD PLAY IN FOURTH GAVE WHITE SOX THE COVETED PENNANT; OTHERWISE LAST GAME WAS A GOOD ONE

New York, Oct. 15.—Coming out of the west, like Lochinvar of old, the Chicago Americans won the world's series baseball championship today, defeating the New York Nationals 4 to 2 in the sixth and deciding game of the 1917 diamond clash. For the first time in almost a decade the titular banner will flutter over the fans of the middle west metropolis next spring when the series pennant is raised at Comiskey park as evidence of the superiority of the White Sox in the great national game.

After winning the first two games on their home field and losing the next two at the Polo Grounds, the Chicago clan clinched the gonfalon with two straight victories, one at Comiskey park and the other at the fair of the Giants. The New York club did not go down today without desperate resistance.

The battle was unchallenged with sensational plays, but the invading combination with the edge of a one-game lead was not to be denied. It was the Giants who eventually broke under the strain of the conflict. With Benton, the towering southpaw, waging pitchers' duel for the title against the curves of Urban Fieber, the battle was fought through three full innings without either team giving away the slightest margin.

Patented for a Moment.
In the "fatal" fourth, however, the Giants faltered for just a moment, and the Chicago players of the day captured the first world series championship emblem won by the club on the shores of Lake Michigan since Chance's Cup defeated the Detroit team in the struggle of 1905.

While the Nationals made a game rally in the fifth and the Sox added another run in the sixth, the Chicago team in the fourth session were the deciding factors. The play in this inning convinced the thirty-thousand spectators present that for this season at least the pennant-winning club of the American league is better than that which won the six-month race in the senior league.

Biggest Gathering Yet.
The largest gathering of spectators to witness any game for the present inter-league combat was on hand when the rival clubs grappled. According to the figures 32,000 persons paid admission to the Polo Grounds, their contribution counting $75,000. Of this sum the stockholders of the two clubs will each receive $35,000.00, and the National commission $75,000.00. The players intend to take part in gate receipts after the fourth game, but they will receive $125,000.00 as their share, this amount being divided 50 per cent to the Chicago men and 40 per cent to the New York players. The total receipts for the series will be $250,000.00, and after subtracting the money paid to the players the two clubs are richer by $125,000.00, and the National commission $125,000.00.

Beautiful Day.
As was to be expected, the day was beautiful, the sun shone, the breeze blew, and the air was clear. The game was played in the best of conditions. The players were in excellent form, and the game was a real treat for the fans. The Chicago team played a great game, and the New York team played a great game. The game was a real treat for the fans.

The vocal applause and support was noticeable in the crucial fourth inning, although it must have been mixed with considerable chagrin at the peculiar defense suddenly uncovered by the Giants. Eddie Collins opened the inning by hitting a home run to third base man, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

Bank League Ball.
Fischer hit to pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who started for home. Catcher Rariden rushed half way to the base to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the put out, and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening, Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while his partner, Fieber, followed him with a single. Right Fielder Robertson next dropped Jacobson's high but easy fly and the batter was safe, while Collins went to third.

SAVOY WON BIG MONEY AT GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

Paced the Fastest Mile on Record in the State of Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 15.—W. R. Cox's The Savoy, driven by the owner, winning the $5,000 cup race at the opening of the Grand Circuit meeting here today, paced the fastest mile on record in Georgia. The black gelding's time was two seconds faster than the best of the new national army. This is the first time since the war that a horse has won the cup race in straight heats, but Rascal gave the winner a hard battle in each event.

The 200 trot also was won in straight heats, Breeze beating a fair field. There were four starters.

TOMMY GIBBONS TURNED DOWN

Famous athletes, many of them boxers, are falling to "get by" in the examinations following their being called for the new national army. This is altogether astonishing to the folks who take a keen interest in all sports, for they are unanimous in the opinion that the men who are in such good physical condition that they can battle in the ring play baseball, football, track athletics, wrestling, or do other things that require endurance and vigorous action, should make husky soldiers of great value to their country in wartime.

We have for example the case of Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, brother of the late Paul, who was ready to do his bit for his country. But when he was called before the examination board it was discovered that he was afflicted with hernia and the board promptly rejected him.

Calling Older Men

Germany Extends Military Service to Men Born After 1870.

Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—Germany has extended military service to men 47 years old, and is calling upon those who have heretofore escaped service on account of military unfitness. The army already has called a large number above the legal limit of 45 years, on the ground that although nobody above that age could be mobilized, yet no regulation existed for the discharge of a soldier reaching that age.

The new regulation calls to the colors all exempted men after September 8, 1870.

KING'S PLATE REGULATIONS

Montreal, Oct. 15.—The Montreal Jockey club, with the approval of His Excellency the Governor-General, announces that during the season of racing in Canada, the clause in the "King's plate" conditions restricting the period in each year in which a "King's plate" candidate may remain out of Canada, is suspended. This will permit owners and breeders who desire to race outside of Canada during the period of the war, and taking their "King's plate" candidates out of the country along with the older horses for training purposes. The same conditions in the Provincial Nursery stake is also suspended for the same period.

LEVINSKY BEAT McMAHON

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—"Batting" Levinsky, light heavyweight champion, outpointed Tom "Beast" McMahon, of Newcast, Penn., by a wide margin in their 12-round bout here tonight. Levinsky had the best of nine rounds, McMahon two and one was even.

FRANK GOTCH BETTER

Chicago, Oct. 15.—The condition of Frank Gotch, former world's champion wrestler, has improved so rapidly that his physicians said today he would leave the hospital tomorrow.

MOTOR LIVERY, LTD.

M1582—TAXI—M3990

STAND: C.P.R. DEPOT. M84-47

ON THE WESTERN FRONT
Canadian railway troops use the slate and coal from a slag heap near Lens for ballast on the light railroads.

CRESCENTS BEAT WESTERN CANADA BY A BIG SCORE

Third Game in the Intermediates Was Easy for the Leaders

Crescent Heights 16; Western Canada 0.
Crescent Heights, 16; W.C.C., 0.
Crescent Heights, 16; W.C.C., 0.

Notes on the Game

"Curley" Noden, who played on the old Tigers, was judge of play. He was surprised to see the brand of game the youngsters put up. "Curley" has been farming for the last four years.

Mr. Woodman handled the other whistle to the entire satisfaction of both teams.

Western Canada has certainly strengthened their team since the game with Central.

McTeer is kicking the ball in great style this season. His punts remind one of the days of "Dobbie."

Neither of the Crescents, plays the game well; he'll make a dandy half-back next year.

Reg. MacLaren played a real game for the Crescents, his punting and running were features of the game.

A large crowd of students witnessed the game from all corners of the field; the game would go smoother for all concerned if the field were clear at all stages of the game.

The Crescents are ahead in the league with C.C.I. a close second.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BOOST PRICE OF BEAN FEEDS

Club at Y.M.C.A. Meets for the First Time This Season

The opening meeting of the Y.M.C.A. High School club was held last evening when the members of the club of last year met down to the first "bean feed" of the season. The high cost of living has touched the club's treasury and the boys decided during the business portion of the program to meet it by increasing the price of the supper to 25 cents, which will, they figure, give them a little surplus to cover the expenses of the club. Incidentally they will arrange to see that no student at any of the High schools is deprived because of the price.

An ambitious program is being planned by the club for the ensuing season and every effort will be made by them to make the meetings even more profitable than last year.

As in previous years only students of grades 11 and 12 will be eligible for membership. Officers will be elected at next Monday's meeting. This annual election is usually a test of the strength of the two larger high schools, Crescent Heights and Central Collegiate.

Sunalla High school is usually sewed up as far as the election goes by the Crescents. There has never been a president from the North Hill school in the history of the club, but a determined effort is being made this year to land that coveted and responsible position for the newer school.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing of the Germans has increased the exodus from Petrograd, which has been noticeable since the fall of Riga.

The Reich attributed the disaster partly to bad visibility and the unexpected political frivolity of leaders of the Russian democracy. The Socialist press takes the Maximalists to task. The Volia Narodna recalls Premier Kerensky's warning of the danger of a German coup in the Baltic, which was stigmatized by the leader of the Maximalists as an unworthy political maneuver. The newspaper insists on the necessity of an implacable struggle against Maximalism.

The Den declares the Maximalist aspirations recently displayed in the fleet undoubtedly contributed to the German success. Only the Izvestia organ of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, looks at the disaster as a blessing in some respect, saying the new of the German landing came at a time when Russia, learning of the troubles in the German navy, was beginning to entertain dangerous and unfounded illusions regarding the imaginary disorganization of the enemy.

The landing