Chicago. March 22.—The news on wheat today was fairly favorable to prices, but local conditions were opposed to improvements, and the latter prevailed. Operators who were short of wheat early last week covered up on Friday and Saturday, thus removing one of the best supports of the market, and moderate offerings demonstrated the under-current of weakness. Liverpool cables reported a decline of 4d, and Paris was quotably 15 to 35 centimes lower than at the close on Saturday. Closing Antwerp cables were unchanged. Berlin reported a holiday. County Poorhouses Commended - Mrs Snook's Case-Suit Against the Maccabees.

Chatham, March 23 .- The spring jury assizes for the county of Kent opened here yesterday, Hon. Justice Robertson presiding. The docket comprises six civil and four criminal cases. Mr. R. C. Clute, Q.C., appears to conduct the Crown business. In addressing the grand jury his lordship strongly commended for various reasons the erection of a county poorhouse.

The grand jury returned true bills against Joseph Dumas. It will be remembered that the accused is said to have gone to the house of an aged widow named Snook, not far from Chatham, at night, and through the window, and afterwards robbed her. She recovered conscious-ness sufficiently to crawl on her hands and knees towards a neighbor's house, where she was found, and has since made a partial recovery. Subsequently on apprehension, it is said, he made a confession of the crime. On being ar raigned he pleaded not guilty. The court will likely occupy most of the Mrs. Catharine Snook, the victim of the shooting outrage at Big Point some time ago, after being discharged from the hospital, spent the majority of her time carousing and otherwise enjoying herself. Yesterday morning she appeared on the streets in a very inebriated condition, much to the dis-gust of the spectators. She wandered down Raleigh street, and finally wa arrested by a couple of constables acting under instructions from Crown Attorney Douglas. Mrs. Snook resisted arrest, and the constables found he physically, to handle. She had to be forcibly lifted into a buggy, and even then she had to be tied down on the way to the station.
