THE TIGERS DROP

Pennant Unless Rivals Strike Snag.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—Bill Donovan was at his best yesterday. The cham-

He was sent in by Jennings in the by free hitting. Rhoades was a puzzle hope of changing the luck of the until the ninth. Manager Lajoie was hit Tigers. He did all that could be asked of mortal man. He held the Boston team in the palm of his hand, fanning ten of them and allowing but seven scattered hits.

But it was not in the cards for the Tigers to win. One lusty heave by Catcher Schmidt that sent the ball to right field, resulted in three runs scoring, and another boot by Schaefer added a fourth. Meanwhile, the Tigers were piling the bases full on old Cy Young, only to find the weak hitters of the batting order coming up when a hit was needed and grounding or striking out.

Pennant Hopes Fading.

The champions outhit Boston and in spots, outplayed them, but they couldn't win. The defeat, with Cleveland and Chicago again winning sends the Tigers down the ladder to third place. This practically puts then out of the race unless they can rouse themselves and fight with their old time fury to get back to the lead Nothing can save them unless Cleveland and Chicago strike a snag. Today they go against Philadlephia in what will perhaps be a last desperate effort to regain their position.

Jennings had practically decided to switch his batting order. He planned to send in Jones and put McIntyre in Cobb's place, as the Georgian has not been going well of late. But when Cobb reported for the game he showed all his old-time fire and pepper and Jennings changed his mind. His judgment was timely and Cobb showed at his best, getting two hits, stealing a base and playing a star fielding game.

Story of Defeat.

The story of the defeat is easily told. In the third inning, with one out, Cy Young hit past short for a base. Mc-Connell got a lucky single, the ball deflecting from Donovan's glove as Bill jumped for it. He struck out Lord, Speaker dropped a bunt in front of Feature Event at Gravesend the plate. Charley Schmidt, usually the most reliable of men on such a play, fielded it and threw to first. The ball was a little high; but Rossman failed to reach for it and it shot to right field. Young and McConnell dashed home and Speaker made third. centre, and Speaker scored.

But even though Joe has made up his mind to quit the mad whirl of the fight game, managers of the local sixround shindigs are just as sure that Joe will become a victim of the six-round habit. Joe would be a great card in New York just now, and it is almost certain that he could hold his own at the very least with all the stars of the little battles. Don't be a bit surprised to see Gans or the bills, Joe loves money.

JACK O'BRIEN

Fight With Former Mid! dleweight Champion.

Philadelphia, Sept. 24. — There was an old score to settle when A. J. 7 Drexel Biddle met Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in the ring today at a private West Walnut street gymnasium. Last winter, as a wind-up to the indoor season of the Merion Cricket Club, Tony Biddle, as he is known in club life, met the former middle-weight champion in a hot bout. The society man, poet and athlete, was ill, and was beaten by O'Brien.

Stroller, ch. h. (Keating) ..... 4 ds in the northern part of Maine. Neither dition. In the presence of half a dozen club men, the men fought it out in four of the hardest rounds ever witnessed in

At the end Biddle was bleeding at the nose and mouth, while his left eye gave indication of taking on mourning. O'Brien's lips were swollen, his Helen Hale, b. c. (Childs) ...... 7 red patch on his ribs showed where nose was slightly flattened, and a big Biddle's vicious right hand body swings had landed. Both men were nearly exhausted, and there was little to choose between them.

Biddle played continually for the body, and many of his blows made O'Brien wince. The clever middleweight kept jabbing away at Biddle's mouth and nose, but the latter always came back for more. The young society man is confident he can drop O'Brien, and when he returns from the hunting trip it will be arranged for a bout of longer duration in private.

Today's contest was one of the most exciting that has ever been seen ir this city.
