His Term of Office Will Be Three Years-New Councillor Appointed.

The Songhees Indians have elected a new last Sunday week, Mr. W. H. Lomas, Indian agent, was away making an inspection of the different reserves as far north as Comox, consequently the important business of electing a new head to the tribe had to be postponed till that gentleman's return. Yesterday Mr. Lomas was in town, and a council of the Songhees tribe was called for 7:30 last evening. At that hour the tribe

7:30 last evening. At that hour the tribe met in the school house on the reserve, and it was decided to elect the new chief by ballot.

At the request of the Indians Mr. Lomas went into a separate room, and one by one the Indians filed in and cast a ballot. The choice finally fell upon Michael Cooper, a brother-in-law of the late chief. Chief Michael is a man of considerable ability, as as he has proved in his capacity as council. lor he being one of the council of four who had assisted the late chief in administrating the affairs of the tribe.

THE steamer Maude, Capt. Roberts, arrived from the West Coast last evening with good freight and passenger lists. She brought back among her cargo two sacks of gold quartz from a mine recently located by F. P. Saunders near the King Solomon She also brought as freight eleven tons of paper from the Alberni mill. Before the Mude left Alberni, J. Redford, the local butcher there, had his leg badly broken by the fall of a heavy beef carcass on it.

ALD. HUMPHREY did not think that the necessity for fire escapes on the city half would arise until some use were made of the third story.

ALD. LEDINGHAM took it that " the com munication was only intended to show the absurdity of the act in certain cases."

The Mayor thought that "no one could say that this act was an absurd one." He looked upon it as "a wise and necessary measure in the interest of the people."

ALD. LEDINGHAM explained that he had not intended to go the length of pronouncing the act absurd in other than certain details There should, for example, be provision for the exemption of buildings upon which there was no necessity for fire escapes.

ALD. Munn thought that it would be found that the city hall was already exemps by the act, and would so remain until the third story was called into service.

Reports from the finance committee re-commended disbursements from the electric commended disbursements from the electric light fund and general revenue aggregating $4,500, and these were duly passed.
