

THE PEOPLE'S PASTIMES.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN SPORTING CIRCLES THE WORLD OVER.

A Crowd at a Dog Show—Fast Typetting—The Pugs and Their Doings—Herald in the Sandwitch Islands.

The Canadian wheelmen's association has now 560 members.

Hankin was paid $500 for rowing three miles at Hamilton, San Sandwich Islands.

The Touring club of England has 11,000 riders; the National cyclists' union 7,000.

The Paris, Ont., cricket club company has applied for a charter of incorporation.

A committee of "Peters" has been formed to raise $1,000 to be given to Weston for his 5,000 mile walk.

It is claimed that one of the old-time pacers, Billy Price, paced a mile in harness in 2:08.

A man in Tombstone, Arizona, is training to meet J. L. Sullivan. He had better stay where he is.

The Windsor, Ont., fair ground and driving park association has made application for incorporation.

Budd Doble will bet $1,000 to a horse-shoe nail that the mare Nellie Hart can trot twenty miles in one hour.

J. C. Wilson, of Peterborough, has sold his trotting stallion, Royal George, to Booth & Co. of Orangeville, for $3,000.

The date of the sculling race between Ross and Conroy at Oak Point has been changed from May 20 to May 25.

Mr. Thomas Nicholson of London, Ont., has entered for the six days' go-a-you-please in New York on April 28.

R. K. Fox proposes to revise the Queensbury rules so that if a man falls in a round without a blow it will be counted a foul.

Spaulding's official baseball guide for 1884 has been published. It contains a great deal of interest to players and lovers of the game.

The officers of the East Toronto football club are: Captain, S. Brubacher; committee—F. C. Jarvis, P. Beatty, T. N. Chisholm and P. Cameron.

Billy Madden and James Keenan of Boston have made arrangements for a four round glove contest between John Kilrain, the Boston pugilist, and Charles Mitchell.

Fifty clubs are members of the United States lawn tennis association. Many of the players are able to put up three- and four-hundred balls with ease, and several are swinging a pair of feathers with skill.

Joe Pendergast refused to spar Charles Mitchell, scientific points to count, but offers to box with him in the Madison square garden, four rounds, Queensbury rules.

Clarence Whistler and William Muldoon have signed articles to wrestle Giraldo, Roman style, best of three falls, for $1,000 a side, at San Francisco on March 24.

Joe Spencer will bet $1,000 to $100 that he will walk further than 5,000 miles in the time that Weston took to complete his task. Spencer once covered 1236 miles in twenty-nine days.

Little betting is reported in England on the "Varsity" race, but in what there is Oxford is the favorite at 5 to 4. Good judges, however, are said to believe that the Cantab horse may be the best material.

"Does backing horses pay?" asks a sporting paper. A backing horse may not pay more than a horse that won't back, but he is preferred in the shant; but perhaps we have not caught the correct drift of the question.

A Pennsylvania man while shovelling a snow-bank out of his yard, discovered a hen which he had missed for ten days. She was awful mad when he hauled her out because she had intended to have a nice quiet, meditative life during Lent.

Jack Keenan offered $100 to have his glove match with James Mitchell declared off, but the latter declined. Keenan exhibited a doctor's certificate. The contest is to take place in New York, March 25, and is to be to the finish.

Wm. Sheriff, the Prussian, took a benefit at Arthur Chambers' place, Philadelphia, March 17. He undertook to knock out Thomas Boldon, a local youth aged 18 and weighing 204 lbs., in four rounds, but failed. He however closed up his opponent's right eye.

In an attempt to beat George Ahrensberg's record of 2,064 ms in an hour, J. McCann of the New York Herald set 2060 ms nonpareil, regular newspaper measure, in that time. Each stickful had one break line. McCann could have done better, and his proof was wonderfully clean.

At the recent Cincinnati Bench Show Dick Bee, belonging to J. Kline, of the Mohawk kennel club, of Chatham, Ont., won first prize for English setter dogs, and Flora B., the property of the Ontario kennel club, Chatham, took second prize for English setter bitches.

James Hurst writes to challenge through the Montreal Star Marcel Baker, Harry Gilmore, or any man in Canada, weighing 130 pounds, to fight with hard gloves to a finish or rounds for $100 to $500. The terms are: Ontario or Queensbury rules to govern, 75 per cent of the house to go to the winner, and the fight to take place in Montreal.

At the recent Cincinnati dog show the crowd in attendance on the first day was so great that it was found necessary to double the price of admission and then the place of exhibition each day was crowded to excess. Secretary Jackson says the same story will have to be told of the Toronto show. If hard work, good management and enterprise receives its reward it will certainly have to be.

Answers to Correspondents. BELFOUNTAIN—It looks fishy, but we cannot say for sure.

What is Catarrh. From the Mail (Canada) Dec. 15. Catarrh is a mucous-purulent discharge caused by the presence and development of the vegetable parasite anemba in the internal lining membrane of the nose.

These are mucous, and are only developed under favorable circumstances, and these are mucous, and are only developed under favorable circumstances, and these are mucous, and are only developed under favorable circumstances.

Whenever introduced Hayward's Yellow Oil finds friends. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use. It all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh.

A Favorite Every where. Whenever introduced Hayward's Yellow Oil finds friends. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use. It all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh.

Paris Dandies. Paris dandies having revolted against the claw-hammer black coat, the correct costume for evening parties now is a blue coat with gilt buttons and pear-ear trousers.

A Double Benefit. James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cured himself of dyspepsia of a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock "Yellow" Bitters, and he has suffered his wife who has been for years a sufferer from the same disease. He occasionally recommends it to all suffering from similar troubles.

The Printer's Points. An Arab said to the reader that at a recent "assault of arms," given as an exhibition in Toronto, one of the exercises on the program was a bowie knife contest.

For the Fencing Club. It is not pleasant to read that at a recent "assault of arms," given as an exhibition in Toronto, one of the exercises on the program was a bowie knife contest.

For all Ages. The aged, debilitated and infirm will find renewed vigor and strength by taking Burdock Blood Purifier. The young hastening to early decay will also find in this revitalizing tonic a remedy worth trying.

Place for the New Cable to Land. The new Bennett-Mackay cable company will land one end of its cable on Cape Ann, Mass., and has bought land for this purpose at Cape Hedge, Long Beach.

Crushed by the Cars. A little son of John Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a G. T. R. express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit and amputation was proposed, but Hayward's "Yellow Oil" was tried, which gave prompt relief, and effected a speedy cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

Female Snobs. A tobogganing party was about to start from the city recently when objection was taken to two young ladies who were present, because they found it necessary to work for a living.

Fact Stranger Than Fiction. It is a fact that Alonzo Howe, of Tweed, had a fever sore that afflicted him for thirty-five years. Six bottles of Burdock Blood Purifier cured him, which he considers almost a miracle.

The reason why "Nonsuch Washing Compound" should be used in preference to all other washing preparations. First, it is perfectly harmless. Second, it saves more than half the labor. Third, it is the cheapest in the market.

A cow horn 4 feet 11 inches long and 18 inches in diameter at the base is on exhibition at Monticello, Fla.

An Iowa man drank three quarts of cider in three minutes.

No one buys a "pig in a poke" in other words, purchases on mere guesswork—who buys for his or her relief Northrop & Lyman's vegetable discovery and dyspepsia cure. The fact is too well known to leave room for any peradventure that it is a sovereign curative for indigestion, constipation, impurities of the blood, kidney and female troubles, and other infirmities.

An application for a patent for an adjustable dog's tail has been made to the United States patent office. The small boy will rejoice at this. Two cans will make more clatter than one.

Ayer's Hair Vigor stimulates the hair cells to healthy action, and promotes a vigorous growth. It contains all that can be supplied to make the natural hair beautiful and abundant; keeps the scalp free from dandruff, prevents the hair from becoming dry and harsh, and makes it flexible and pliant.

A party of Baton Rouge, La., bird hunters recently killed 1,400 robins with sticks.

Many imitators, but no equal, has Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Care will kill a cat. The care must be exercised in taking aim. It is extremely difficult, however, to hit one in the dark with a bottle.

When the blood is loaded with impurities, and moves sluggishly in the veins, an alternative is needed, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.

The Wolves of Kingston. From the Kingston News. Ex-sergeant W. Moore and Joseph Moore intend holding religious meetings nightly and bring them in from the hedges and highways. Special attention will be paid to the wolves in the city.

A Favorite Every where. Whenever introduced Hayward's Yellow Oil finds friends. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use. It all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh.

Paris Dandies. Paris dandies having revolted against the claw-hammer black coat, the correct costume for evening parties now is a blue coat with gilt buttons and pear-ear trousers.

Returned with Interest. Twelve years ago Mrs. Carline of Clinton, Iowa, purchased about $12. On Wednesday she received an anonymous letter from some person in town, with an enclosure of $20. The letter stated that the writer was the finder of the pocket book, the contents of which they had turned to their own use, and they now sent the $20 as an equivalent of the lost money and interest. The note was signed "One who feels happy now."

Liquor Tea. Like a blessing from Heaven, in providence given, quite certain I am this is true. Into all its homes, On the wings of the morn', Refreshing us all like the dew. This liquor friends, is for you and for me. Each day you go out, you may get it you see; At the depot on Yonge street for Liquor Tea.

Popular for Febrile. From the Halifax Herald. John Cragin, of Barney's river, Pictou, offers to buy all the poplar that can be supplied as cordwood. He will ship it to American pulp mills. What a sad commentary upon Nova Scotia enterprise!

Danger Traps. Neglected colds are the fatal traps that ensnare many a victim beyond the possibility of rescue. Take a cold or cough in time and it is easily conquered by that safe and pleasant vegetable remedy Hayward's Peppermint Balm. Asthma, Bronchitis and pulmonary complaints generally soon yield to its healing influence.

A Vermont man has a hen thirty-nine years old. Every time he tells its age the intelligent creature looks offended and tries to cockle "his eyes."

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. See that you take no other and you will be satisfied.

Stranger—"What is the meaning of blood on the moon?" Well, you just let your neighbor catch you abusing his dog and you'll find out.

What It Has Done. Mrs. George Simpson, Toronto, says: I have suffered severely with corns, and was unable to get any relief from treatment of any kind until I was recommended to try Holloway's Corn Cure. After applying it for a few days I was enabled to remove the corn, root and branch—no pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from corns.
