Yonge Street Dry Goods Palace The World paid a visit to the dry goeds ablishment of Edward McKeown, Yenge street, yesterday, and twas shown through by the genial and enterprising manager, Mr. Crichton, under whose wapervision the house is being renovated from top to bottom, inside and out. The ground floor has been lately lighted by an ingenious lantern roof of Mr. Crichton's own invention. By means of this roof an equal and brilliant, but not dazzling, light is shed over the entire flat. The second floor is being handsomely carpeted, furnished and fitted up generally as a mantle wareroom. The most convenient series are employed to display the goods to advantage. The third story will be taken up by the dress and mantle cutting rooms and ladies' fitting room. All these improvements were found necessary to meet the demands of a growing trade. Mr. McKeown is now merely waiting for the workmen to vacate the premises to take out of the custom house a large consignment of fall goods. In every respect Mr. McKeown's establishment commends itself to the public notice. to the public notice.

The Wholesale Millinery Boom.

D. McCall of McCall & Co. was so scarcely a moment's time to give to The World reporter. He said that since the opening day the establishment has been erowded with buyers, who have been placing heavy orders. They all appeared to be well satisfied with the class of goods shown. Mr. McCall said that the umatipox epidemic in Montreal might in part account for the great influx of purchasers, but not entirely. The presence of such hosts of buyers was mainly to be attributed to the fact that Canadian store keepers are washingted. A. G. F. Lawrence, T. C. 36
