No Show for a Third Party.

J. G. Farmer, master of L.O.L. No. 18, approved of the Wallace resignation, but he was not favorably struck by the proposed third party. He was certain the Orangemen throughout the country would support the ex-Controller in his stand against the enforcement of Separate schools in the Prairie Province, but he thought there wauld be no show for a third party in Dominion politics. In his opinion the Grits would have a better chance to get into power than any third party.
