TWO YEARS OF TORTURE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

There are two ways usually adopted in trying to cure indigestion or stomach trouble—the wrong way by using purgatives and the other drugs which only act locally and which in the long run causes more distress by weakening the whole system. The other way and the right way is the Dr. Williams' manner of treatment—that is to nourish and build up the stomach by supplying plenty of new, rich, red blood. Give the stomach this much needed supply of new blood and distress will disappear and stay banished forever. The new blood strengthens the nerves of the stomach and gives it the necessary power to digest food. Thousands bear witness to the value of the Dr. Williams' treatment through the blood. Among them is the Rev. F. D. Nowlan, of Summerville, N. S., who says: "I certainly have great reason to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they were the means of saving my life. Till I reached the age of thirty I never knew what pain or sickness meant, but after that my stomach failed me and food of any kind caused untold distress. I became constipated and was forced to use injections daily. This went on for about two years; I grew weaker and weaker; my weight fell off from 185 to 125 pounds; I had a hacking cough and appeared to be going into a decline. All this time I was being treated by the best of doctors but without the least benefit. Night after night I could get no sleep the pain and agony was so severe. On consultation the doctors decided I was suffering from cancer of the stomach and advised an operation as a means of saving my life. This I refused to undergo and began to look forward to an early death. Just then a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had no faith in any medicine and at first refused, but my friend was so persistent that finally I gave in and purchased half a dozen boxes. By the time these were gone I felt much stronger and the distress was not so severe. I continued their use and each succeeding box wrought a marked improvement in my condition till by the time I had taken a dozen boxes every pain and distress had left me; my strength increased; my weight was back where it was before I was ill; I had a good appetite and was completely cured. In the years that have elapsed since I used the Pills not a twinge of the trouble has returned. To me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest medicine on earth and I never lose an opportunity in recommending them to other sufferers, for I feel that were it not for their use I would have been in my grave long ago."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for Rev. Mr. Nowlan they have done for thousands of others and will do for you if suffering from any one of the cases of stomach trouble, but rheumatism, partial paralysis, heart palpitation, St. Vitus dance and all other troubles that have their origin in a bad condition of the blood and nerves. The Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

E. Collier, S. W. Edwards, E. Robinson and T. Fuller.

The funeral service, held at the Zion Methodist church, of which deceased was a devoted member, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. G. Robinson, assisted by Rev. J. C. Foster, Presbyterian minister from Watford, and Rev. S. V. R. Pentland, of Brooke.

The Guide-Advocate joins in expressions of deepest sympathy to the bereaved family, consisting of a widow and grown-up family as follows: Edgar, of Saskatoon; Lena, of Regina; Mary, Carrie and Paul, at home. The deceased also leaves three brothers, John and Edwin, of Adelaide township, and William, of Strathroy, and two sisters, Mrs. P. Anderson, Strathroy, and Mrs. G. "Cawthorpe", of Melbourne.

"Though our hearts are filled with mourning, Mercy still is on the throne, With thy smiles of love returning, We can sing "Thy will be done."

By thy hands the boon was given; Thou hast taken but thine own; Lord of earth and God of heaven; Evermore "Thy will be done."

Strathroy Fair

Strathroy, Sept. 22—The Strathroy fair was a great success, one of the largest crowds ever attending being present. It is estimated that 10,000 people were on the grounds.

The exhibit in ladies' work and art was the largest ever, and the display of fruit, flowers, roots, vegetables and grain was the most notable exhibit.

The racing was unfinished, as a shower sprang up at 5.30.

Patriotic Concert at Warwick

The spirit of loyalty which animates the members of the Women's Institute prompted them to hold a patriotic concert in the Orange hall on Friday evening. A very appreciative audience helped to make the evening a success financially, the proceeds being $44.00. After expenses were paid, the balance, $40.00, was sent to Mr. Noel Marshall, chairman of the Red Cross Society. Mr. John Farrell occupied the chair, and although apparently overwhelmed by his duties, still performed them in an acceptable manner. The opening chorus, "The Maple Leaf Forever," was sung by the audience, followed by prayer by Rev. W. M. Shore, asking God's blessing on all the efforts that are being put forth for the help of those in need, and that peace may soon be restored.

Mr. Frank Elliot delighted the audience with the rendering of "The Gray Ships," the dreadnaughts which make Britain "the mistress of the seas."

Mr. H. J. Pettypiece gave an interesting and instructive address, speaking of the tremendous crisis through which the country is passing. "There must be only one issue of the war," he said. "The military despotism of Germany must be crushed." Mr. Pettypiece also read a poem, entitled "The Mother," the pathos of which brought tears to the eyes of many of the mothers present.

A choir, under the able leadership of Mr. Robert McFarlane (an old Warwick boy, in spite of Mr. Farrell's assertion that "all good things come from Forrester") gave "O Canada" in splendid style, followed by an address by Colonel Kelly, "the man of the hour" (in Lambton.) The Colonel looked very soldierly in his handsome uniform of khaki, and spoke of his recent trip to Valcartier. He also made a strong plea for the young men to show their patriotism by enlisting.

The audience broke into cheers when Miss Ross sang "When Johnnie Canuck Comes Home."

If all Canadians had the patriotism of R. J. McCormick, the Germans would soon be conquered. He also complimented the ladies on the tasteful decorations of the hall.

Colonel Kenward, a red-coated soldier of King George V., said that, as we have supported the soldiers of the cross who go forth to battle with the sin of the world, so we must do our part in supporting those who have gone to take part in this terrible war, and if the work is faithfully done then "as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff; they shall part alike."—1 Samuel 30, 24.

The Forest choir sang the Welsh national air, "Men of Harlech," giving for an encore "Britannia, the Pride of the Ocean," the audience joining in the chorus.

Miss Sadie Barnes recited in a manner which would have done credit to a much older elocutionist, "No Foe Besets Our Gates."

Mr. Shore found the evening and the occasion most inspiring.

We were pleased to have with us some of our friends, the early inhabitants of this country, Mr. and Mrs. Elm, and Mr. George sang in the beautiful Indian language a hymn and encore.

Rev. Mr. Irwin, chaplain of the 27th battalion, spoke of the many things which those who stay at home can do, the most important of which is to pray.

We think it would have done the hearts of the parents of those who have gone to the front from Warwick if they had heard the three cheers and a tiger were heartily given for Color-Sgt. Newell and Sergeant Newell. Private William Blount was also remembered and the hope expressed that they would all return in safety.

Miss Jennings sang sweetly "Sweet Dreams." Rev. Mr. Kennedy sang a solo in his usual fine voice, and in his address spoke of the two banners under which we should be all united: the first the banner of the Cross, the second the Union Jack. If we fight bravely under these we shall all be free men for time and eternity. He spoke of the whirlwind campaign shortly to be held throughout the township, changing the immortal words of Nelson to "Warwick expects every man to do his duty." Miss Ross sang "Scots Wae Hae," followed by "Rule Britannia" from the Forest choir. "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" brought to a close another of those successful entertainments for which Warwick is famous.

ALEXANDER-JOHNSTON

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnston, townline, Enniskillen, when their eldest daughter, Selena J., was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Alvin Alexander, of the 2nd line, Plympton, on Wednesday, Sept. 16th, 1914, in the presence of Rev. T. M. Mead, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. The drawing-room was prettily decorated for the occasion. At 6 o'clock the bride entered the room, leaning on the arm of her bridesmaid, and the wedding march. The bride was attired in a pale blue silk dress, trimmed with shadow lace.

After a dainty supper had been partaken of the young couple left for a short trip to London before settling down in their new home on the 2nd line, Plympton.

On the previous Saturday the friends of Calvary Church gave Miss Johnson a good shower of useful presents, in some recognition of many years of valued service in the church.

OBITUARY

Many readers will be pained to read of the death of Mr. Jas. Sullivan, lot 29, con. 3, S.E.R., Warwick township, which occurred at his late residence on Sept. 12th, after a lingering illness, occasioned by a severe cold contracted last January, afterwards developing into pulmonary tuberculosis, which in spite of every effort of skillful physicians to arrest, the progress of that insidious disease soon made such inroads on his heretofore robust constitution, as to make it apparent to his family that the end was not far distant.

In the community in which he lived so long his death will be keenly felt. His kindly ministrations to those in sickness or distress, his loyal devotion to the church and Sunday School, his inspiring exhortations from the pulpit throughout the circuit, which he delivered so often and so acceptably had won for him a warm place in the hearts of the people.

Of him it can be truly said: "Diligent in business, fervent in prayer, serving the Lord."

The funeral, one of the largest ever witnessed in the county, was held on Monday to the Watford cemetery, and the casket bearing within the wasted form, and without the beautiful flowers arranged in forms of wreaths, pillows and bouquets, was borne to its last resting-place by six lifelong friends and neighbors, Messrs. Jas. and Robt. Wynne, J.
