A subscriber called at this office a few days ago and ordered his Monitor discontinued, stating that owing to the increased cost of living he found it necessary to economize. This week we had another coll first the second that the second the increased cost of living he found it necessary to economize. This week we had another call from our former subscriber who ordered his name re-placed on our mailing list and he made the following explanation. "I placed on our maining list and he made the following explanation: "I was without the Monitor for one issue but happened to see it at a neighbor's. The first article I read I considered worth the price of a year's subscription, so have decided to economize some other way, as I cannot do with-

In looking over the books of the Riverside Cemetery Company we find that while the amount of taxes collected during the past year has been fair, we observe that a few lot owners are a number of years in arrears. The aggregate of the taxes overdue will reach the sum of about $300.00. This is due largely to carelessness or oversight, and in order to facilitate the good work of the cemetery, you will understand the necessity of having these amounts in the treasury in order that the running expenses may be promptly met. If the above applies to you we would urge that you give the matter immediate attention the matter immediate attention the matter immediate attention and the second of the company.
