

publication of an alleged libel ought not to be restrained by interlocutory injunction, except in the clearest cases — lay down a principle of law? Lord Justice Lopes and Lord Justice Davey hold that it does, and we think they are right; indeed, the notorious history of the case seems conclusive on the point. But Lord Halsbury strongly entertains the contrary opinion. Again, can a person take a photograph picture or representation of another who has been accused of a crime, exhibit it in a permanent form, and defend the exhibition by saying, 'I do this because the public are interested in this person; and it is true that he has been accused of a crime, which is the only allegation (if any) that I make?' Lord Halsbury says, 'No,' partly, it would seem, on the authority of Leyman v. Latimer, 47 Law J. Rep. Exch. 470; L. R. 3 Exch. Div. 15, 352. Lord Justice Lopes apparently differs, and holds that in any event the question is one for the jury. Lord Justice Davey preserves a judicial silence. We trust that ere long, in some form or other, these moot points will come before the House of Lords. Interest reipublicæ ut sit finis litium is no doubt a salutary principle; but interest reipublicæ ut sit finis causarum litigandi is a better one.—Law Journal (London).

 SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

23 Oct., 1893.

KINGHORN v. LARUE.

Quebec.]

Opposition afin de conserver on proceeds of a judgment for $1,129—Amount in dispute—Right to appeal—R.S.C., c. 135, sec. 29.

K. (plaintiff) contested an opposition afin de conserver for $2,000, filed by L. on the proceeds of a sale of property upon the execution by K. against H. & Co. of a judgment obtained by K. against H. & Co. for $1,129. The Superior Court dismissed L's opposition, but on appeal the Court of Queen's Bench (appeal side) maintained the opposition and ordered that L. be collocated au marc la livre on the sum of $930, being the amount of the proceeds of the sale.

Held, that the pecuniary interest of K. appealing from the judgment of the Court of Queen's Bench (appeal side) being under $2,000 the case was not appealable under R. S. C., c. 135, sec. 29. Gendron v. McDougall (Cassels's Dig., 2 ed. 429) followed.
