

modern church is under the same divine influence as the church of Judea. But this, surely, is an untenable, and, if one go into it, an unbelievable position.—From "The Mind of the Master," by Ian Maclaren.

Nine times out of ten a bad habit is overcome more easily by relinquishing it at once, than by gradually breaking away from it. Compromise is not complete reform; and then too, where the change is not immediate, carelessness is liable to lead to laxity and finally to abandonment of the effort to reform.

Reason requires culture to expand it. It resembles the fire concealed in the flint, which only shows itself when struck with a steel.
