

THE GEORGIAN BAY CUT.

The American Lumberman, estimating the 1900 cut of white pine in the Georgian Bay district, states that while only three or four mills will be in commission in the Georgian Bay district this season, old ones have been rebuilt and preparations made to run many of the mills day and night. This authority gives the following summary of the probable output of the Georgian Bay mills for the season of 1900:

Our contemporary also remarks that in active seasons of the past as high as 300,000,000 feet of logs have been exported to feed Michigan mills, while this season barely 50,000,000 will thus be directed. While the Georgian Bay production may possibly reach the figures given, 473,000,000 feet, when we consider that this quantity represents the cut in past seasons of Georgian Bay mills as well as the mills in Eastern Michigan, it cannot be regarded as an excessive production, and likely to seriously affect the market. Allowing 250,000,000 feet as the quantity which would, under former conditions, be manufactured in Michigan, but 223,000,000 feet remain as representing the Georgian Bay production.
