COME

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

THE Twentieth Anniversary of the Association was held on Tuesday evening last. Everything so far as weather was concerned would have led us to look for a very small audience. The attendance, however, was large, and much interest was aroused by the addresses given by our worthy President, Hon. S. H. Blake, Mr. Caldecott, chairman of Finance Committee, and Rev Dr. Vincent. Our space will not admit of even a fair synopsis of these addresses. Mr. Blake spoke of the marvellous growth of these institutions in all parts of the world; of the vast amount of good being accomplished through their agency, and closed by reviewing the work of the Toronto Association during the past year, remarking that never before in its history had there been gathered round the building such an efficient staff of earnest workers. He read extracts from letters received during the past few weeks, shewing how from England, Ireland, Scotland, and cities in the United States, our Association had been appealed to for aid in looking up and caring for young men.

Mr. Caldecott spoke of the need for increased contributions to carry on the work efficiently. He thought we should have, 1st, a very large addition to the membership roll; and, 2nd, that at least 500 Sustaining Members at $5 per year should be secured.

Rev. Dr. Vincent's address was (as his addresses always are) a masterly handling of the subject of "How Young Men should be trained. He spoke in eloquent terms of the advantages possessed by the Y. M. C. A. to reach and benefit, in the fullest sense of the word, the youth of the present day. He was listened to with rapt attention, and was frequently applauded.

The Choir of Bloor Street Methodist Church, under the leadership of Mr. H. M. Blight, with Mr. W. S. Jones as Pianist, rendered valuable services during the evening.

Hearty votes of thanks were tendered to Dr. Vincent for his address, and to the Choir for their services, after which the meeting closed, and the friends separated, evidently well pleased, and we trust much benefitted by the evening's meeting.

ENOCH AND ABRAHAM.

IHAVE lately conversed with two gentlemen whose names are Mr. Enoch and Mr. Abraham, and when I saw them shake hands it made me smile to see Enoch thus saluting Abraham. But they were only Enoch and Abraham in name, and though both of them are excellent men they are not the veritable patriarchs. Have we never known persons bearing the name of Christians who were so only in name? The more's the pity.—C. H. S.
