Puncti in Canada.-This merry litile reekly appearel ac curdinf to previous notice, on Nery Year's jnay. Ii contains a 1 umber uf amusing pieces in prose and verse. One of the atter is nut surpasied for the inoliness of jts versigication, and is change of language from French to English, nud sice versa, by its English pruhtype Rut ihe musistriking feature of the Canadian Punch is ite frontispiece, in which ibe grea droll is exlibited in the act of introducing himelf to the "No tives,"-Members of parliament, lawgers, Ironunis, jacoons, and beavers. The figures in some of the vigattes of this frontfy piece, are remarkable for their groleague humous, and do great honor to thes artiste. Mr. Lock- This wood-cut is cer cainly the very best, out of all proportion, which we lave Purch's in canada; and sin, we toush help to increas Punch's subscription lish, as well as apen the way for mare xtelnsive encouragenemt the art of woni engraving. Such specimens as Ptheh's frontspiece, are little inferior io any twate in England; they win therefore, be worth paying for thad ta see some gublisher devise any plan which will anable him to find the menas to pay fur them, and should Pupct be successful, we shall like it su much the better.-Iferald.
