Literary Notes.

Since his return to England, Mr. Whistler has devoted much of his time to a new series of lithographs of London and district, one of which—a view of the Thames looking towards Westminster—will be among the supplements to the first part of the new volume of The Studio, due about the middle of June.

Mr. Zangwill has never contributed a brighter essay to The Critic than the one which appeared in that journal on June 20th. The text on which he philosophizes with so much wit is the recent visit of the Kaiser to Italy in celebration of the Triple Alliance. Mr. Zangwill found Guglielmo II. and his big yacht very noisy neighbours at Venice.

The Fleming H. Revell Co. announces for immediate publication "Evolution or Creation? A critical review of scientific and scriptural theories of creation and certain related subjects," by Luther Tracy Townsend, author of "Credo;" and "Studies of the Man Christ Jesus," by Robert E. Speer. They will issue in July a biography of the late Dr. A. J. Gordon.

The scheme for placing in the Chelsea Public Library the statuette of Sir Thomas More, by Herr Ludwig Caner of Berlin, which was exhibited at last year's Academy, has been well supported. Amongst the subscribers are the Duke of Norfolk, the Marquis of Ripon, Lord Teynham Lord St. Oswald, Lord Arundell of Wardour, Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice, and many other noble lords and commoners.

Among other books announced by the Macmillan Company is the translation of a book by A. P. Tverskoy, written in Russian, under the title of "Sketches from the United States of North America." Readers of The Nation will remember a letter published a few weeks ago, from Dr. Leo Wiener, of the Boston Conservatory, in which he alludes to this author as "The Russian Bryce." The titles of some of the chapters include, "Ten Years in America," "The Presidential Campaign of 1892," "My Life in America," "Letters," "The World's Fair," etc.

For more than a half-century Littell's Living Age has been republishing the best and most important papers, biographies, reviews, stories, verses and sketches of travel, to be found in the foreign (especially the British) magazines, quarterlies and literary weeklies. During this long period it has been prized and commended for the judgment and taste exhibited in its selections. Hardly one of the eminent British authors of the past fifty years can be named who has not been represented in these pages. Its latest issues contain many articles of present interest and permanent value.

Under the general name of the Riverside School Library Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co. announce that they will issue in attractive style and at moderate prices a series of fifty books peculiarly suited for School Libraries. These books have been chosen largely from the best literature which has stood the test of the world's judgment, and yet is as fresh and inviting to-day as when first published. The suggestions of more than one hundred prominent educators of this country have aided the publishers in their choice. The volumes will be edited with great care, and will contain portraits and biographical sketches of the authors; also notes and glossaries wherever needed. They will be thoroughly well printed and bound substantially in dark red half-leather, with cloth sides. The first ten volumes, published on June 6th, are as follows: Andersen's Stories, Franklin's Autobiography, Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield, at 50 cents each; Fiske's War of Independence, Holmes' Autocrat of the Breakfast Table, Lamb's Tales from Shakespeare, Scudder's Washington, at 60 cents each; and Cooper's Last of the Mohicans, Scott's Ivanhoe, and Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin, at 70 cents each. The remaining volumes of the Riverside School Library will be published very shortly. In every respect they will commend themselves to all who wish that their pupils may have the best, most interesting, and most salutary reading.
