

For the Month

Memory Gems

If we do not plant knowledge when young, it will give us no shade when we are old.—Lord Chesterfield.

Just as is bent the little twig.
So will the tree be when grown big.

Summer or winter, day or night,
The woods are ever a new delight.

Kind hearts are the gardens,
Kind thoughts are the roots,
Kind words are the blossoms,
Kind deeds are the fruits.

Consider the lilies of the field how they grow,
They toil not, neither do they spin;
And yet I say unto you that Solomon in all his glory
Was not arrayed like one of these:

We can never be too careful
What the seed our hands shall sow;
Love from love is sure to ripen,
Hate from hate is sure to grow.
Seed of good or ill we scatter
Heedlessly along our way,
But a glad or grievous fruitage,
Waits us on the harvest day.

God is waking his tiniest messengers to praise Him, and to carry sweetness into all the world.
