

Organization Charts

The format of the Directory reflects the organization of the Department at the time of publication. The chart below shows the organization above the Director General level. The charts on the following pages show the areas of responsibility for the Legal Adviser, the Planning Secretariat and each Assistant Deputy Minister and the organization within these areas from the Director level up.

