

4 This article shall be applied as may be necessary to ensure that no more favourable treatment is given to a vessel entitled to fly the flag of a non-Party than is given to a vessel entitled to fly the flag of a Party.

ARTICLE 9

Promotion of technical co-operation

1 Parties to the Convention shall promote, in consultation with and with the assistance of the Organization, support for those States which request technical assistance for the:

- .1 training of administrative and technical personnel;
- .2 establishment of institutions for training of fishing vessel personnel;
- .3 supply of equipment and facilities for training institutions;
- .4 development of adequate training programmes, including practical training on seagoing fishing vessels; and
- .5 facilitation of other measures and arrangements to enhance the qualifications of fishing vessel personnel, preferably on a national, sub-regional or regional basis, to further the aims and purposes of the Convention, taking into account the special needs of developing countries in this regard.

2 On its part, the Organization shall pursue the aforesaid efforts, as appropriate, in consultation or association with other international organizations, particularly the International Labour Organization and the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.
