

8. The designated airlines of the Contracting Parties shall file service schedules with the aeronautical authorities in accordance with the regulations of their respective authorities. Service schedules shall include all relevant information, such as type, model and configuration of aircraft, frequency of service and points to be served. Such service schedules shall be accepted or approved without undue delay if they conform to the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 11

Statistics

1. The Contracting Parties, through their aeronautical authorities shall provide, or shall require their designated airlines to provide to, the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party, on request, periodic or other statements of statistics as may be reasonably required for the purpose of reviewing the operation of the agreed services, including statistics showing the initial origins and final destinations of the traffic.
2. The aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties shall maintain close contact with respect to the implementation of paragraph 1 of this Article including on procedures for the provision of statistical information.

ARTICLE 12

Customs Duties and Other Charges

1. Each Contracting Party shall, to the fullest extent possible under its national law and on a basis of reciprocity, exempt the designated airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party from import restrictions, customs duties, excise taxes, inspection fees and other national duties and charges on aircraft, fuel, lubricating oils, consumable technical supplies, spare parts (including engines), regular aircraft equipment, aircraft stores (including beverages, tobacco and other products destined for sale to passengers in limited quantities during the flight) and other items intended for use or used solely in connection with the operation or servicing of aircraft of that airline as well as printed ticket stock, air waybills, any printed material bearing the printed insignia of the company and usual publicity material distributed without charge by that airline.
2. The exemptions granted by this Article shall apply to the items referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article:
 - (a) introduced into the territory of one Contracting Party by or on behalf of a designated airline of the other Contracting Party;
 - (b) retained on board aircraft of a designated airline of one Contracting Party upon arriving in or leaving the territory of the other Contracting Party; and
