

Business of the House

the Crop Insurance Act. Perhaps this will put everybody into a better frame of mind and we shall return to the present bill with greater readiness to get on and pass it.

An hon. Member: Just accept our amendment.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Now that we are all in a good frame of mind, will the minister also tell us what we shall be doing on Friday?

Mr. MacEachen: I cannot tell the hon. member right now. I am dependent upon what happens tomorrow and on the results of consultations with my colleagues and other House Leaders.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): I thank the minister for such an honest answer.

At 6.02 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
