

July 3rd, 1924.

William M. Murphy, Esq.,
35 Ashland Street,
Arlington Heights, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge and to thank you for your letter of June 21st with reference to a position at this University.

There is at present no vacancy
on the University staff which would be of interest to you. Your application will, however, be filed for future reference and should an opening occur I will communicate with you at once.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.