

- Minong Island, disappearance from maps, 95.
 Missions: early, 10, 11; Huron, at Bois-blanc, 99; removed to Sandwich, 103.
 Money: current, 262; paper, shiplasters and dicker, 384, 490-2, 497; scrip, 501.
 Monguagon, Battle of, 289, 296.
 Monroe County, organized, 383.
 Monroe, James, President, visits Detroit, 383.
 Montreal Point, opposite Detroit, 104.
 Moore, Thomas, major in Ohio volunteers, 274.
 Moravians: Zeisberger and others brought prisoners to Detroit, 183; settle at New Gnadenhutten, 184; abandon it, 187.
 Morell, George, Territorial and State Judge, 435, 480.
 Mormons, establish kingdom on Beaver Islands, 549; its fate, 551.
 Morrison, Robert, major in Ohio volunteers, 274.
 Muir, Major, British Commander at Detroit, 349, 353.
 Mundy, Edward, first Lieutenant Governor, 465.
 Munson, J. R., major of Ohio volunteers, 274.

N

- NAVARRÉ, Robert, deputy of the Intendant, 96, 97, 99.
 Negroes: retained as slaves, 204, 246; not restored when fugitives from Canada, 246; enrolled as militia, 249; peculiar laws concerning, 417.
 New France, included Michigan, 8.
 Newspapers: none in Canada, 152; Michigan Essay, 255; Detroit Gazette, 384; Michigan Herald, 412.
 New York: ceded to England, 29; controversy with, for western trade, 42.
 Nicholas, a Huron chief, plots against Detroit, 102.
 Noblesse, French citizens belonging to, 212.
 Nolan, Detroit monopolist, 88.
 Normal School, 532, 543.
 Northwest Company: opposed to settlements, 257; quarters at the Sault, 402.
 Northwest Territory, Chap. IX.
 Norvell, John, one of the first Senators, 469.
 Notary, an important officer, 78, 97.
 Noyan, Monsieur de, Commander at Detroit, 93.

O

- OCHSWEGO or Oswego, a name of Lake Erie, 57.
 Officers: English, disliked by Indians, 175; Scottish, more acceptable, 136; British, at Malden, exceed their authority, 378, 379.
 Ohio: organized as a State, 222; furnishes volunteers for Hull's army, 273; operations after Hull's surrender, Chap. XII.; boundary dispute with, 444-463.
 Okemos, a nephew of Pontiac, 119; roughly handled by American rangers, 364; submits to the United States, 365.
 Ordinance of 1787, 206.
 Ordinances of Detroit peculiar, 224, 227.
 Oregon resolutions, 520.
 Oronoté, a Huron chief, 102.
 Oranger, and Dubuisson, 84.
 Otsiketa, a name of Lake St. Clair, 38.