

REGATTA, ST. JOHNS YACHT CLUB.

two American gunboats, the Growler and Eagle, which were taken in an attack on the fort—an unfortunate occurrence for the Americans, as these vessels were afterwards fitted out and took part with three small gunboats in a sortie (Colonel Murray and Captain Everard) up the lake, in which was devastated the barracks, arsenals and public edifices of Plattsburgh, Burlington, Champlain, Swanton, etc., the flotilla returning in safety after spreading terror in all parts of the adjoining country.

CAMPING ON THE BANKS OF THE RICHELIEU.