London Standard estimates Canadian borrowings in England during 1914 at 2215.000,000, and accrease of $470,000,000 as compared with the previous year. Municipal loans accounted for $32,000,000, and government loans approximately $20,000, 000.

The £434,000,000 gold holdings of the allies are distributed as follows: England, £95,000,000; France, £165,000,000; Russia, £170,000,000. England's reserves could be immediately increased by £50,000,000, now held by the individual banks. Despite this enormous aggregate of gold held by England, France and Russia, Great Britain is using every endeavor to prevent gold exports. The financial sentiment has been strengthened by Lloyd George's and Minister Churchill's speeches.

The American Railway Association reports idle cars as of Feb. 1, 277,473 and a shortage of $32, making a net surplus of 276,641 cars.
