

"He Doeth All Things Well."

Words by AMY PARKINSON.

Music by W. J. HUNTER EMORY, M.D.

f

1. Child, thy Fa - ther choos - eth
 2. Winds the road more steep - ly?
 3. Nev - er He mis - tak - eth,
 4. On then, up - ward toil - ing!

As is best for thee; Still let this oft re-Faint - er grows the light? Yet be thou sure that Nev - er doth cease to love—And thou of all His On through shad - ow dim! The jour - ney will in

f

cur - ring thought Thy strength and so - lace be.
 His de - sign Is kind and wise and right.
 guid - ance shalt The gra - cious pur - pose prove.
 bright - ness end, And bring to rest with Him.