PERSONAL AND PRESS OPINIONS

"The best of the kind I have seen."—A Chaplain of the War.

"It is a work for all time, and not merely for the passing hour."
—Halifax Herald.

"I would subscribe for any book you would write."—Chief Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia.

"Your book appeals to me more closely than any record of the war I have hitherto read."—An Officer of the War.

"The Preface is an eloquent appeal on behalf of our soldiers, and the Finale what might be expected from one whose ardent patriotism has ever impelled her to write up the merits of her adopted country."—The Patriot, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Mrs. MacLeod's patriotic works have brought her acknowledgments from subscribers in all parts of the British Empire, among them Earls Aberdeen and Rosebery, Lord Strathcona and the late Lord Tennyson, Admirals Prince Louis and Sir J. Hopkins, the Archbishop of Halifax and Bishops of Ottawa and Charlottetown, Governors-General and Premiers of Canada and New Zealand, Crown Ministers, senators, judges, authors, and clergy of all denominations, also Rectors of Colleges, Secretaries of Clubs, etc., etc.
