NARRATIVE TRAOTS.

Who that has ever read the lives of some of the old Methodist and other saints have not wished that such glorious experiences might be developed in this day. How many readers of these soul-inspiring biographies have felt as though they might do something towards promoting this type of piety if they could only scatter such books broadcast over the land. People will read and become interested in narratives, when abstract truth takes but little hold of them. But the great cost of giving away such a quantity of books, and sometimes the equal impossibility of selling to the very persons you want to reach has prevented you from carrying out your wish. To meet this difficulty we have published a series of Narrative Tracts, as follows:

Experience of Rev. J. Fletcher.....	4	$.25	$1.25
Experience of Hester Ann Rogers.....	4	.25	1.25
Experience of Lady Maxwell.....	4	.25	1.25
Experience of Rev. E. Payson.....	4	.25	1.25
Experience of Rev. H. Belden.....	4	.25	1.25
