DEAR SIR,—We are pleased to learn that you have applied for the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. McKay at the Custom House. All we can say is that we think you admirably qualified, being a good chemist, and having a general knowledge of business.

We have felt for years that a man of your capacity was very much required at this important post.

MONTREAL, JANUARY 26TH, 1877.

SIR,—We are informed that it is the intention of Mr. S. J. Lyman to apply for the situation of Appraiser at Her Majesty's Customs in Montreal, rendered vacant by the death of the late Mr. D. McKay.

We have much pleasure indeed in expressing the opinion that Mr. Lyman, who has been known to us for twenty years, more especially in the general drug business, is eminently qualified to fill the position efficiently, and to the satisfaction of the Department.
