SALVATION ARMY SERVICE Solemn Geremonials in Massey H Marked Good Friday.

Salvationists in uniform crowded in-to Massey Hall yesterday morning to attend the great solemn assembly and feast of trumpets, an elaborate reli-gious program of Scripture and singconducted by Commissioner and

According to the program the object of the services was the celebration of the atonement, and to "show the manner in which right down the ages, the righteous God has shown stern jus-tice (which declared the soul that sinneth, it shall die) by means of explatory sacrifices, the merciful God accepting the substitute for a sinner."
The main part of the service was a sermon on "Expiatory and Personal Sacrifice" by Commissioner Rees. The lights were turned down and striking limelight pictures shown to exemplify the intense reality of the atonement. The pictures were: The Altar of Sacrifice, Bringing the Calf to the Tabernacle, The Priest Slaying the Calf, The Altar of Incense, The Burnt Of-

The Altar of Incense, The Burnt Offering, Bringing an Offering of Two Doves, and The Scapegoat.

Selections of Hebrew melodies were beautifully and powerfully rendered by the massed bands. A covenant of self-sacrificing service for God and humanity was entered into by the soldiers and the friends present.
