Alleged That A. C. McKendall Committed Suicide Owing to an Affair of the Heart.

Hamilton, Feb. 5.—There was a pretty lively time at to-night's meeting of the Sewers Committee. The only business was the consideration of the estimates for the year.
Engineer Wingate, who prepared them, was absent, thru illness, and Ald. Wallace, the wisecrack of the Council, attempted to chop them down unmercifully. "After several hundred dollars had been cut off four or five items, and Ald. Donville termed the action "damned foolishness," the rest of the committee decided to their respective duties. The meeting was a very disorderly one, the chairman being repeatedly interrupted. Chairman Bigger's repeated requests for order were disregarded.
