Saturday, with some showers. WOMAN GAVE ROACH AWAY

Fell Into & Trap Set by a Montreal Detective.

Montreal, May 26 .- The arrest at Boston of Jack Roach, who is wanted in connection with the Napanee Bank robbery, was due to Detective Kellert, of Montreal. Detective Kellert some time ago discoverel that a woman who had been very intimate with Roach had suddenly disappeared from Montreal. Kellert learned that she had gone to Boston, but without any distinguishing marks it was difficult to locate her, so Kellert wrote a letter addressed to "My dear Dick." "Dick" was the lady's nickname. It told of how sorry the writer was that she had gone away, and hoped soon to see her in, etc. The letter was sign-"Your Old Friend Nellie," and again, etc.

"Here's my address."

It was sent care of the general postoffice, Boston. A few days afterwards the answer came back to Montreal, and Kellert soon had it in his possession. After referring to one or interesting matters "Dick" two interesting matters "Dick" went on to say, "And who do you think I am with? Nobody else but my dear old Jack. But we had a fight a few days ago, and he got mad and went away, but I know he will be back in a day or two." Then she gave her address, and Kellert wired it to a detective in Boston. The rest was Wednesday morning Roach returned to his sweetheart, and he was at once put under arrest.

WARM FIGHT!

Between an American Scouting Party and a Body of 'Pinos.

Manila, May 26.-11:20 a.m.-A scouting party of American troops encountered a body of insurgents at Santa Rita, and the Americans being reinforced by Brigadier-General Funston, with the South Dakota Regiment, a warm fight ensued.

A lieutenant and five men of the American force were wounded and ten of the insurgents were killed and several captured.

Nearly everyone needs a good spring medicine, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is by all odds the best that money can buy.

LIFE SAVED-Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good.

Union Recognized Elsewhere.

Mr. Everett, the American millionaire, as was shown at the great mass meeting in the Opera House last night, recognizes the employes' unions, and deals with and through them, both at Detroit and Akron, Ohio, of the street railway systems of which places he is chief owner, as well as chief owner of the system in London.

If Mr. Everett can recognize, and deal with and through, the employes' unions of Detroit and Akron, Ohio, why should he decline to do the same in

The Street Railway Company's Interest.

While The Advertiser sympathizes with the men, it would be very glad to see the Company do well also. But, as Company ought not to be too ready in deciding to throw away what must always be the best asset a street railway Company can have-namely, the goodwill of the public.

Let Order Be Preserved.

It is so obviously the interest of the men to preserve the strong sympathy of the public which they now possess, that we do not believe any one of them gives the slightest encouragement to stone-throwing, or other petty acts destructive of property. But boys are sometimes thoughtless, and it is well to persuade them from unthinkingly injuring the men's cause.

A Magnificent Meeting.

There has seldom been a finer mass meeting in London than that held last RUMPUS ON night in the Grand. A sea of intelligent, resolute faces; mostly men; every gallery crowded, and hundreds standing. Mr. Mahon's speech was a splendid effort; eloquent; full of strong facts and sound logic, and devoid of clap-trap and sensationalism. Perfect order prevailed, and every good point was instantly taken up.

Interest of Retail Stores.

Another reason why nine out of ten of the retail businesses of London, big and little, want to see the men get good wages, and good conditions of working, is that they see the chief benefit accruing to London from the franchise of the street railway system, is the amount of money received in wages and spent in the stores. The profits go mainly to the wealthy American gentleman who is the chief owner of the system. The sympathies of the London retail merchants naturally go with the union; but their business interests are on the same side.

Arbitration Elsewhere. A point clearly brought out at the magnificent meeting last night in the Grand Opera House, was the fact that Mr. Everett, the chief owner both of the Detroit and London street railways, in Detroit has recognized the principle of permanent arbitration. Whenever any dispute on any subject arises, there is the permanent board of arbitration to refer to. The Company has one representative arbitrat-Fresh south to southwest winds on or. The Union has another. These two select a third, and the majority settle and decide all disputes in short order.

If Mr. Everett can agree to a permanent board of arbitration in Detroit, why not in London?

Alleged Window Smashing.

The following advertisement appears in this morning's Free Press, and as we have given all the news of the disagreement thus far on both sides, without money and without price, we reprint the following advertisement on the same terms. So here goes:

$100 REWARD.

The London Street Railway Company will pay $100 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the party who came out of a new house on Wellington street south and threw a stone through a car window on the 25th May, 1899.

The Company will also pay $100 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the party who threw an iron missile from a window in The Advertiser office through a vestibule car window on the afternoon of May 25, about 4 o'clock.

As to the first item, the police have been informed, and are investigating. If any street gamin has been making a fool of himself by throwing a stone, as alleged, he deserves to be smartly punished, as a useful lesson.

As to the second item, that a car window was broken by an iron missile from a window in The Advertiser office, the most diligent inquiry, by the management of this paper, has failed to locate the thrower, or any evidence that anything whatever was thrown from any Advertiser window by the printer's devil or anyone else. From another source, the charge is made less grandiloquent by the statement that the "iron missile" aforesaid was a three-inch nail. It need hardly be said that a nail is not peculiarly connected with a printing establishment. If any such incident ever occurred, the Street Railway Company are very welcome to push it for all they are worth, and The Advertiser would gladly add a trifle to the reward, if necessary. The Advertiser, throughout the former as throughout the present strike, has persistently deprecated window smashing, and the like, as calculated to do no good to the men or anyone else, and in fact, to create sympathy for the company.

There are two theories as to who break car windows, and as to the respective motives which might prompt either party. In either case it is a practice that is simply annoying, and silly beyond expression.

Decoys Do Not Deceive the Public for a Moment.

Company Is Being Mad: to Feel the Force of the People's Disapproval.

It is a real pleasure these days to be able to report one generous action on the part of the street railway company. As a crushing answer to the charges of unfair treatment of its employes, the company magnanimously allowed the young ladies employed in their office to ride on the cars as much as they wanted to yesterday. The lady who keeps the office clean was also given an outing. Nor were these three was said last night at the meeting, the the only passengers. Some of the local directors rode ostentatiously. A few relatives and friends of those connected with the management tried to give countenance to the blank-looking cars. But the public held aloof while the empty cars rumbled by. And so it was again today. And so it will continue to be until the public is satisfied that the company is willing to deal fairly by the men. Not by threats, or by the destruction of property, nor by violence > will the people endeavor to make the company realize the advantage of a fair arbitration. Daly, Clark & Co. presented the striking street railway men with 200 union made cigars, with the manufacturers' compliments and wishes for the men's of any sort, but by the steady, irresistible pressure of a moral boycott

DUNDAS STREET

A Boy Caned by the Street Car Company's Solicitor-A Crowd Gathered.

A lively episode at the corner of Dundas and Clarence streets this morning attracted a big crowd, and for a few moments threatened a riot. A 15-year-old boy named Ferguson, who was riding a wheel, called "scab" after a street car. Mr. C. H. Ivey, one of the company's solicitors, was on board at the time. Mr. Ivey jumped out, toppled the lad off his wheel and gave him a smart stroke over the head with his walking cane. A crowd of men interfered, but the presence of a policeman exercised a

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. O'Dell was at work in Cawrse's brickyard, when the clay cavgood money into the bargain. ed in and jammed him up against a car used for bringing the material out of the cut. Mr. O'Dell was buried beneath the dirt, and when dug out his face was against the car. On examination both his jaws were found to be broken. Dr. Piper was called and experienced difficulty in checking the flow of blood from the severed arteries. Mr. O'Dell was removed to his home, where his head was kandaged, and every service rendered. For six weeks Mr. O'Dell will be compelled to sit with his teeth closely pressed together. Four teeth have been drawn to enable tubes to be inserted in his mouth, through which he is fed. The jaws cannot be properly set until the lacerations on the inside of the mouth are healed.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN GUADALOUPE

Between the Natives and British Contract Labor Immigrants.

Dervish Panic - Precipitate Flight From an Upper Nile Town.

London, May 26.-Advices received here from Guadaloupe, the French West Indian Island of the Leeward group, report a recurrence of serious rioting between the native population and British contract labor immigrants, which culminated in the recent fire. Continuous fierce fighting is said to have taken place on the plantations, and the police and military, it appears, cannot suppress the disturbance. Several fatalities are reported. As a result, the British consul there has appealed to Great Britain for protection for British subjects.

Brussels, May 26.-News has reached here from the Congo that the dervishes encamped at Bor, on the Upper Nile, having learned of the fall of Khartoum, burned the town and fled northward. A large expedition, under Commander Chaltin, is being organized to proceed to the Upper Nile. Bor, or Bohr, is the capital of the district of the same name in the old Egyptian Province of Equatoria. It is situated in the Bahr-el-Jebel, the western arm of the Upper Nile, about 250 miles south of Fashoda, and 50 miles north of Lado. Bor was besieged by the mahdists in 1884, and in the winter of that year was captured, the garrison being almost exterminated in a foraging expedition. [Special to The Advertiser per C. P. R.] Ottawa, Ont., May 26.—It was learned at the state department today that on Tuesday, May 23, the sheriff of Winnipeg was notified by telegram that his excellency the governor-general had decided to allow the law to take its course in the case of the two Galicians who were to be hanged today. The department asked that this telegram be acknowledged. The sheriff did so, and the department therefore took it for granted that everything was all right. The first intimation that was received of the sheriff refusing to act reached the government through a private dispatch. State officers say there is no precedent of a case of this kind. In many instances a decision in capital cases has not been reached until the day previous to execution. Take the case of Hendershott, at St. Thomas, when Sir John Thompson was minister of justice. It was about ten o'clock the night previous to execution when the intention of the governor-general was made known. A RAILWAY BILL PASSED IN COM-MITTEE.

At the meeting of the railway committee today the Nipissing and James Bay Railway bill was passed. Work must be commenced within a year on the first section, and when undertaken

At the public accounts committee, W. J. Christie, late deputy collector of inland revenue at Winnipeg, was examined in regard to his charges against Harry Costigan, then collector at Winnipeg, and now at Ottawa. Nothing that was new was adduced.

RECOGNIZED BY THE BOSSES. Toronto, May 26 .- The journeymen plumbers have a grievance, and a committee was appointed to wait on the bosses and place the matter before The committee reported last night that they had been recognized by the bosses, who had expressed their intention of appointing a committee to confer with them. FIRECRACKER DESTROYED HER EYESIGHT.

Barrie, May 26.-As a result of Wednesday's celebration here, Maria Hastings, a young girl from Innisfil township, will lose the sight of an eye. She was passing along the street just as a boy was discharging a giant fire-cracker. A part of the exploded cracker struck her on the face, penetrating the eye.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oll-a pulmonic, of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial results.
