FOR SAKE OF CHILDREN.

The question of better salaries for teachers in the city more generally majority of this profession, has been drawn from the ranks of women. Should they be granted the demanded increase? is the matter which is bothering the school trustees today.

man at the expense of the crops, which are the very source of his living?

Can a prosperous manufacturer afford to replace his efficient engineers and foremen with raw and cheap material, which will put his whole concern out of business?

Everyone knows the answer and, of course, sees the point. How can the city of London expect to have the best educational advantages for its boys and girls, if it is not ready to provide the best teachers and pay for them at the present-day rates? Surely the city is as wide-awake as the farmer and manufacturer!

is as wide-awake as the farmer and manufactures!

And above all the women should be considered in this matter. They are the ones who, by nature and generations of training, are specially fitted for teaching young children. And unless they are fittingly paid for their services in this profession they will leave it for more profitable fields of endeavor. Who then will fill up the gaps?

VICTORIA PARK DISMANTLED.

Beautiful Victoria Park is being dismantled of its flowers, and in their place are great beds of brown earth, under which spring bulbs will soon nestle. The practical park commissioner would no doubt laugh at the regret that they might have been left until the prince's visit, on the chance that fine weather would continue. But somehow, laugh he or laugh he not, the regret is there in the hearts of not a few.

SOCIAL ITEM BARRED FROM REGULAR COLUMN.

Here's an item which almost went into the social column. Indeed, had it not been for the fact that the ladies included therein would have strenuously objected being associated with the family in question, even in these democratic days, the item would have been inserted. As it is, hating above all things, snobishness of any form, let alone that which goes to the extreme of inducing self-respecting ladies alone that which goes to the extreme of inducing self-respecting ladies to refuse to tread on the same floor level with the afore-mentioned individuals, I am going to give this social item editorial place.

Here is the item:
Yesterday afternoon at the tea hour. The Advertiser editorial room was the scene of a very interesting party, when three mice, attired in self-color dainty refreshments from the telegraph editor's paste pot. The desk was fittingly laid with the evening's paper, while a motley color scheme was carried out on the walls, hung with priceless pictures of baseball heroes, impossible to duplicate, so long have they been given a place in the ranks of antiques.

An original idea was introduced at this function, in that each of the guests "poured" for herself. Miss Mouse, who, judging from her timybody, must be a debutante of this season, had great difficulty in achieving the top of the paste pot, but once there, ate as daintily and efficaciously as the other two, who were evidently matrons of some standing. A shower bouquet in the form of peals of laughter form one of the male members of the staff, intermingled with feminine shrieks, soon brought the party to a close.

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, foers no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive. And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not. Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Scothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself. MOTHERS SHOULD READ THE BOOKLET THAT IS AROUND EVERY BOTTLE OF FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Dear Miss Grey.—About three weeks ago I saw in your column some recipes for making chili sauce and catsup. I neglected cutting them out and now mother wants them, so would you kindly reprint them? If you cannot find those that I want please print some that you think would suit. Have you also got a recipe for pumpkin marmade. If you have will you kindly print the rest. I am 16 years old, weigh 138 pounds, stand 5 feet 7 inches. Do you think I am too big for my age? What days did the following fall on: April 7, 1871, and February 7, 1872?

MERRY MAY.

recipes, I am not sure these are the exact ones, but they should be good, I think:

Chili Sauce—Twelve large ripe tomatoes, 2 large onions, 1 cup vinegar, 2 cups sugar, 1 small tablespoon each of pepper, salt and cinnamon. Boll all together until thick, stirring often. Seal while hot. This makes two quarts.

A second recipe calls for the use of apples and peppers, as follows:

Chili Sauce—Twenty-six large tomatoes, 18 large apples (sweet), 12 large onions, 3 green or red peppers, 1 tablespoon ginger, 1 tablespoon cinnamon, 1 tablespooncioves, 2 tablespoons salt, 5 cups sugar, 4 small cups vinegar. Boil till thick enough.

Tomato Catsup—Scald and peel 'omatoes and cook well, press through a sieve and to each 5 pints of pulp add 3 pints vinegar, 2 tablespoons salt, 2 teaspoons mustard, 1-4 teaspoon of cayenne pepper, and 5 drops each of oil of cinnamon and oil of cloves, 2 cups of granulated sugar. Boil until very thick; seal while hot; by using the oil of cinnamon and cloves the catsup does not turn dark.

Pumpkin Marmalade—Cut 8 pounds of yellow pumpkin into small pieces and mix with 9 pounds sugar. Let stand 12 hours. Then peel 6 oranges and 6 lemons, boil rind of 2 oranges and 6 lemons, boil rind of 2 oranges and 6 lemons for two hours, changing water two or three times, then cut off as much of white as possible to prevent bitterness. Chop remainder of rind and add to rest of fruit, and boil two or three hours; put in jars and keep in dark place.

Wants Map of France.

Dear Miss Grey.—I wonder if any of the Mall-Box readers could send me a good map of France, with the principal battlefields marked or named? There were quite a number in The Advertiser but all seemed to get destroyed.
