Pumping For Test Purposes To Commence Immediately.

Pumping for test purposes at the sylum wells is expected to commence day. All the pumping apparatus has sylum wells is expected to commence oday. All the pumping apparatus has sen erected, and caless an unexpected itch occurs, operations can be started to once. The operations are somewhat omplicated in this instance because of he construction of the well.

It was dug to a depth of 80 feet and irilled for a considerable distance below that level. First tests will have to establish how much water is obtained from the top section of the well. Then the pump will be lowered into the drilled section, and tests will be made to see what its water-bearing capacity is.

There are a number of shallow wells in this location which will also be tested. In there proves to be a sufficient surplus above the amount required by the Ontario Hospital it may be used as an auxiliary to the city supply. The level is fairly high at this point, and it would be an easy matter to turn the water into the East London mains if the supply was satisfactory from all standpoints, according to General Manager E. V. Buchanan.

No reports are available yet from the drilling operations.

To Wear Thin Waists or Sleeveless Dresses

(Beauty Topics.)
With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of wdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread, on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in an original package.-Advt.

How Many Men Keep

Youthful Looking?

It is well known that within recent years the men have become extensive patrons of beauty specialists and masseurs. Not only the fastidious, but men generally who have a care for personal appearance. This has also led to the employment by many of home methods calculated to enhance or preserve physical attractiveness, especially by those who abhor "beauty partoris." Of these, perhaps the most widely used is the mercolized wax treatment, which explains the mystery of the silver-haired gentleman with the boyish face. The mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is applied the same as cold cream, only not rubbed in. This gradually absorbs the dead and half-dead cuticle in tiny particles, revealing the fresher, healthier-hued skin beneath. To secure best results many apply the wax at night, washing it off in the morning. Women

Richard Haines of Bathurst street tried hard to convince Magistrate Graydon in police court today that chopping in another man's door with an axe, when there is sufficient provocation, is entirely within the laws of ethics. He met with little success. "OLD 27" SENT TO BARN-FOR REPAIRS

Wheel Will Be Replaced by New One.

Case of Nerves.

Conductor John Ashton has been on the car but intermittently lately, and this is explained by the passengers as case of nerves developed by the incessant pounding of the flat wheel on Old 27. There is also a story which cannot be verified, that one old lady had her false teeth shaken out on the floor as the car took a curve on high.

At any rate, it is hoped by the passengers that something will be done towards providing Old 27 with a new wheel, and that as a result megaphones will not be needed to carry on a conversation when commuters are making their daily trip to the city.

To a very great extent the Canadian price of dairy produce is ruled by the British import trade. As a means of still further reducing the cost of living, it has been suggested that an educational campaign might be promoted to induce Canadians to drink more milk and eat more cheese and butter, all of which products are very high in food value and are now plentiful as a result of foreign market conditions.

Seaforth Man Says He Got "Liquor" From Stranger.

William Haddock of Seaforth was found guilty of having liquor in a place other than a private residence, contrary to section four of the O. T. A., and was fined $200 and costs in police court this morning. Joseph Gillen, 267½ Dundas street, who was arrested in company with Haddock and also with a bottle in his possession, saved himself from a like fine when he proved that both the bottles were owned by Haddock.

P. C. Percy Last arrested the two men on King street, near Wellington on Saturday afternoon. He found a bottle in the possession of each. One of the bottles was half emptied, while the other had not been opened.

Both prisoners told the same story. Haddock had come from Seaforth early in the day. He was returning on the 5 o'clock train. While sitting on a truck on the G. T. R. platform, Haddock bemoaned the fact that no prescriptions were avaligable. The wish had barely been formed when what to them was apparently a good fairy appeared in the form of a man who had been drinking. He approached the two. other than a private residence, contrary

The magistrate was quite convinced that Haddock owned both the bottles.
