SUBURBAN RESORTS AT WOOLSTOCK.

At Woolstock, which is situated about a mile this side of Westfield, are the following citizens, who, with their families, are making the sweet perfume that ever permeates the atmosphere in the rural districts during the summer months: George Smith, J. Willard Smith, Charles Peter, Jr., Rockwell, George McKeown, Harry Robb, Mr. Cooper, Percy Clark, Dickson Trueman, Beverley Macaulay, Alexander Macaulay, Stephen McQuay, W. Wasson Allen, Mr. Ewing, E. R. Macdonald and C. H. Hutchings.

AT RENFORTH.

Most of the summer population have now arrived and, with a few fine days the gaieties will commence. Boats are being overhauled and made ready, tennis courts are being fixed up, preparations are under way for baseball games and quiet matches and everything points to a pleasurable season, provided the weather is propitious. The boys of Camp Kumfort had a very pleasant time last Monday night when they entertained about fifteen of the nurses from the public hospital staff. Next month they will hold another drive, when the lighter moments are so rolling as could not get away on the last occasion. Clarence H. Ferguson has taken half of Alexander Watson's house for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Watson moved out the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Murray moved out to their cottage on Tuesday. Robt. S. Ewing has rented the Herritt cottage. AT BROOKVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson Hunt and Mrs. H. L. Everett moved out to their cottage on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Clinton Brown arrived on Tuesday and took up their abode at "The Cove". Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rising and family have arrived and taken up their cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Dickson and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huestis moved out a few days ago. Miss Nan Rowley, of Marysville, is visiting Miss Grace Estabrook. Miss Vera Robertson is visiting Mrs. E. L. Rising. Mr. G. J. Estabrook is in Wolfville attending the closing exercises at Acadia.

AT YORK THEATRE

The Convict's Daughter, which will be the attraction at York Theatre, commencing Thursday next, is said to be one of the best presented comedies offered to the theatre going public, while in incident and theme it is most powerful, every climax breaking with almost volcanic intensity. So much, by way of introduction. To go into the play itself, nothing can be said to detract from its worth. In the entire company, from the actor who interprets the leading role down to the mere stage loiterers, there is not one single person who has been negligently selected, or unintelligently cast. The situations, the motives, the character commingling without the least jarring or tugging or straining, giving a pleasing fitness to a story that is said to be taken from life. The climaxes develop quickly and break magnificently, while the lighter moments are so rolling as Sousa march, the sentimental fragments being truly natural and the comedy bits as sparkling as the lights which adorn the stage.

MAY BE BAND CONCERTS

The triangular lot on which the band stand at the foot of Garden street is situated will doubtless be an interesting spot during the present summer. The Christian Endeavour Society will hold meetings there and it is the intention if possible to give a series of band concerts. A resident of the locality talking to the Times pointed out that the latter, like floral decorations, will mean considerable outlay and while many expressed a desire to have the place as attractive as possible, especially during the tourist season, very few have assisted by donating either flowers or money. "It," said the gentleman referred to, "some of these inquiries would put their hands into their pockets and encourage others to follow the good example, both music and flowers could easily be arranged for."

FABIO ROMANI

At the York Theatre last night a good sized audience was present to witness Fabio Romani. The play was well put on and several curtain calls were made. John Arthur, as Fabio, was well cast, and Nina, by Miss Edna Farvel, was excellent. Scidom has the York had a better balanced company, and a visit this afternoon or evening will repay one. The scenic part in the last act, "The Expulsion of Vesuvius," where Nina loses her life, is worth seeing. This afternoon and evening will be the last chance to see Fabio Romani.

THE TRIP TO LOCH LOMOND

Pleasant Day Spent at Waterworks--An Open Air Council Meeting.

The civic picnic at Loch Lomond yesterday was a distinct success and a thoroughly enjoyable, as well as a profitable day was spent.

The first stop was made at the Marsh bridge, where Engineer Hunter pointed out where the new regulating valves would be built.

Half a mile further on the party watched the men at work laying the new thirty-six inch iron pipe which is being substituted for the two twenty-four-inch mains from the One Mile House to the bridge. About 1,000 feet are already laid, and it is expected that the work will be completed this month.

The Silver Falls pumping station was inspected and following that the reservoir was visited, where an explanation of the junction between the new pipe line and the present system was given.

As the party were about to re-enter the carriage, the mayor exercised his prerogative and summoned the aldermen to a meeting of the council, which took place on the side of the hill. The recorder and Messrs. Mooney were present but representatives of the press were not admitted within ear shot. It is understood that several weighty matters in connection with the lowering of the lake and the construction of the dam were discussed. The council adjourned without passing any resolution but they appeared to be thoroughly enjoy the open air session for a change. It is doubtful if any record of the meeting will appear on the minutes of the council.

The return to the city was made about 7.30 o'clock.

SERIOUS FIRE THIS MORNING

W. & K. Pedersen's Establishment on Sandy Point Road Damaged.

The horticultural establishment of W. & K. Pedersen, on Sandy Point road, was visited by fire at an early hour this morning, and the boiler house and contents and the ends of four greenhouses destroyed. The total damage will probably aggregate $1,000.

Two sleighs, two carriages and a quantity of harness were destroyed. The houses, which looked its way out, escaped with badly singed shoulders and only the smouldering stump of its tail remained.

The origin of the blaze is unknown, and the family, who were asleep when it started, were aroused by the barking of the dog and the roar of the flames.

It was learned this morning that Messrs. Pedersen had $500 each on two of the greenhouses, with Tilly & Fairweather of the Sun Fire.

The losses will shortly be adjusted by Edgar Fairweather.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Went End Man, 84 Years Old, Sued for $10,000 by Former New Brunswick Young Lady

George Rowley, a retired carpenter, eighty-four years of age, residing in the West End, has been made the defendant in a breach of promise suit brought by Ethel Grace Gibbon, a lady of 23 years, a native of Baywater, but for the last five years a nurse in Boston hospitals. The case will be tried before Judge McLeod in the circuit court on June 19. Dr. L. A. Curry, K. C., has been retained by the plaintiff, while the defendant's interests are in the hands of J. B. M. Baxter.

OPERA HOUSE

Roselle Knott Scores Second Success in Historical Drama

Roselle Knott made her second appearance on the Opera House stage last night, when she presented "When Knighthood Was in Flower" before a fairly good house.

Miss Knott, as Mary Tudor, has many chances throughout the performance to show her talent and she does exquisite justice to every line she utters.

"Knighthood" has been read by all, and when she goes to the Opera House not many minutes elapses before the history of England in the sixteenth century reverts to his memory. The court of Henry VIII. is to be seen, and England's king furnishes excellent examples of what happens when two determined natures meet.

BUILDING BOOM FOR FAIRVILLE

It would seem from present indications that there will be a building boom at Fairville. An effort is being made to purchase the large field that lies between the bridge road, C. P. R. tracks and Fairville station and opposite the provincial hospital. The land is about 600 feet by 450 and for a number of years has been cultivated and yielded crops for the use of the hospital, but latterly has been used for a pasture. It is the property of the crown.

There are two applicants—one for a part and the other for the whole of the field. It is said that the latter bidder intends, if he secures it, to divide it into building lots for dwellings. Hon. Mr. LaBrosse, commissioner of public works, arrived in the city and went to Fairville to look into the matter. He also looked after the matter of ventilation and repairs to the hospital.
