The announcement of the sudden death, by septic-pneumonia, of Dr. Charles Patrick Inches, at the Hartford Hospital, Hartford, Connecticut, came as a great shock last evening to his sisters, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield and Mrs. W. H. Harrison, and his brothers, Major Cyrus Inches and Mr. Kenneth Inches. Major Inches left on the evening train for Hartford, to accompany the body home. Many expressions of sympathy were offered for the sudden passing of a young promising physician. Dr. Inches was the youngest son of the late Dr. P. Robertson Inches and was making great strides in his profession.

Mrs. Frederick A. Foster, Leinster street, was hostess very informally at the tea hour yesterday, for a few friends for Mrs. Joseph A. Grant, prior to her departure from the city.

Mrs. James P. Turnbull, of Red Head, entertained at three tables of bridge Thursday afternoon. The prizes were won by the guest of honor, Mrs. F. C. Francis, of Pittsfield, and Mrs. John S. Addy.

Miss Hilda Shaw was a hostess on Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, 221 Germain street, for five tables of bridge, with as many more guests coming in for tea. The drawing room was decorated with Ophelia roses and yellow chrysanthemums and the dining room was in coral shades, with carnations and candles to give the desired effect. Mrs. L. de V. Chipman and Mrs. J. A. Boyd presided over the tea cups and were assisted in serving by Mrs. A. West Murray, Miss Harriet Vincent, Mrs. Fred J. Harding, Mrs. Alwater Smith and Mrs. James Robertson Curry.

Wilson; Miss Lela Kee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Kee; Miss Margaret Steves, daughter of Mrs. Maud Steves; Miss Bernice Sommerville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sommerville, and Miss Frances Gale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Gale.

Mrs. R. L. Kerrigan and daughter, Grace, left yesterday afternoon for Vancouver where they will join Mr. Kerrigan.

Miss Marjorie Long, of West St. John, will arrive home today from Sackville, where she is attending Mount Allison Ladies' College. She will be accompanied by her school friend, Miss Kaye Colwell, of Ottawa, who is also a student at Mount Allison, and who will be a guest with Miss Long at the latter's home for the holiday. They will return on Tuesday.

Mrs. Simeon Jones has gone to Montreal to visit Mrs. Andrew Jones for the holiday.

Mrs. F. M. Keator is in New York, visiting relatives.

Miss Edith Bauld is arriving in the city from Halifax, today and will be a guest at Mrs. C. J. Coeter's, Princess street, for the week-end.

Mrs. Andrew Blah, who has been visiting her chrysanthemums, Mrs. Walter Vaughan, in Montreal, has arrived home to Rothesay.

Miss Annie Allen left for Woodstock last evening to visit her cousin, Mrs. T. Griffin and Dr. Griffin, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. F. E. Williams and her daughter, Mrs. A. Clair Gilmour, were at home to 150 of their friends yesterday afternoon at their residence, 185 Germain street, from 4 to 6 o'clock. The large rooms were prettily decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and the dining room table was centered with these blooms and lighted with golden candles. Mrs. Williams received in a gown of orchid georgette, while Mrs. Gilmour was in a gown of apple green georgette. Mrs. A. B. Gilmour and Mrs. R. Duncan Smith presided over the tea and coffee and were assisted in serving by Mrs. W. H. Turner, Mrs. G. S. Dearborn, Mrs. Ralph Parker, Mrs. Ralph Stephenson, Miss Eileen Ritchie, Miss Frances Campbell, Miss Agnes Hamilton, Miss Audrey Turner, Miss Olivia Gregory, Miss Margaret Gilmour and Mrs. G. P. Hamm. Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory and Mrs. Fred J. Harding ushered. Little Miss Shirley Hamm, in a dainty frock of yellow georgette with rosette of mauve, opened the door.

Mrs. Kenneth Reade, formerly Miss Winnifred Yemom, received for the first time since her marriage, at her residence, 102 Guilford street, West St. John, on Wednesday afternoon. Assisting her were Mrs. J. K. Hamm, wearing a brown beaded crepe satin and Mrs. C. Reade, in black satin and lace. Mrs. Reade was in a gown of beaded sand georgette over flame color. A pretty arrangement of yellow, mauve and bronze chrysanthemums with day leaves and rough boards, worn, made an artistic decoration. Mrs. M. R. Hamm and Mrs. H. M. Hamm presided over the tea cups. Mrs. H. A. Brown and Miss Ellen Colston ushered. Those assisting in serving were Miss Muriel Rogers, Miss Dorothy Sinclair, Miss Marjorie Napier, Miss Marion Fisher, Miss Mary Shortt and Miss Edna Shaw. Little Miss Audrey Adams opened the door, wearing a fluffy dress of yellow georgette. Many called during the afternoon on the bride who is a prominent member of the Windsor chapter, I. O. D. E.

Mrs. William S. Hare and little daughter, Alexie, and Mr. Charles Hornell and his daughter, Miss Edna Hornell, motored from St. Andrews yesterday and are visiting Mrs. John Dobbin, at Fair Vale. They were accompanied by Miss Fern Wren, during the holiday; Miss Marjorie Shaw, of Sydney, Cape Breton, who will visit her aunt, Miss Eleanor Shaw and several others.

There will be many arrivals for the holiday among college students from many parts of the province. From Netherwood will come Miss Constance Watson, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Watson; Miss Muriel Tapley, who will visit her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clark, Germain street; Miss Rachel Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong; Miss Gladys Murray, of St. Stephen, who will visit Lieut.-Col. W. H. and Mrs. Harrison; during the holiday; Miss Marjorie Shaw, of Sydney, Cape Breton, who will visit her aunt, Miss Eleanor Shaw and several others.

POOR LITTLE RICH KIDS
HAVE NO HOME OF OWN
AND CAN'T BE ADOPTED

BOBBIE AND AUDREY AINSLIE.

New York, Nov. 8.—Anybody would love these two chubby Ainslie tots, Bobby, 4, and Audrey, 3. Their mother, Marie Newton Ainslie, has not been heard from for two years, since she placed them in the Fieldston School at Riverdale. And George J. Ainslie, her husband, disclaims them and refuses to pay their bills.

So they are staying on the charitable love of the school director, gray-haired Mrs. Harriet Haddon.

Adoption into a wealthy and kindly family is denied by the legal requirement for the consent of the parents.

This is the status today—the tragic anti-climax of the romance between Ainslie, flying ace and son of a wealthy art dealer, and pretty Marie Newton, a dancer who used to lure trade to fashionable Rector's. Their marriage was wrecked in 1921 when the husband walked into Rector's one night, found his wife at a table with Roy Wingate, rich and married, and knocked Wingate to the floor. He instituted an alienation suit then against Wingate, but Wingate committed suicide.

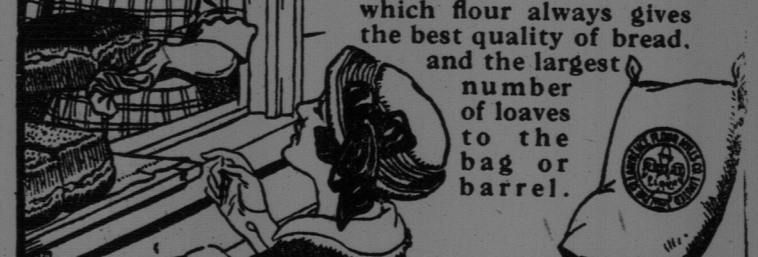

Mrs. Haddon now is seeking payment from Ainslie for the care of the children.

WINTER PROTECTION OF ROSES

Without ample protection many rose plants are lost every winter. At the Charlottetown, P. E. I., Experimental Station, hybrid tea roses that were banked with earth and later covered with dry leaves and rough boards, came through the winter in fine condition. The plants that were only banked with earth were, as a rule, severely injured and some were killed outright, according to a report by the superintendent of the station for 1923, issued by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

EXECUTIVE MEETS.

An executive meeting of the Women's Council was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon with the president, Mrs. A. W. Estey, in the chair.

SUNSET means
"Wear the colors
you like best"

PERHAPS you particularly favor brown—articles dyed with SUNSET browns, or the fashionable shades like penny brown or burnt russet, have all the warmth and charm of the most costly new things.

Or, if you love blues and greens, SUNSET will give you all the most beautiful, new, modish tones, like shutter green.

Think! it takes only 30 minutes to dye with SUNSET, and every color is fast.

SUNSET is different from all other dyes

SUNSET will not stain hands or spoil utensils. It does not scatter, spill or leak. It dyes all fabrics—silk, wool, cotton, mixed goods—the same color in the same dye-bath. It cleans as it dyes.

In brief, literally millions of women have found in SUNSET the first and only ideal home dye, for without experience or special equipment, they can produce with SUNSET, results that equal the finest achievements of the professional.

SUNSET means prettier, more becoming clothes in the fashionable shades so difficult to find even in new materials—all at negligible cost.

The directions with each neat, compact cake of SUNSET tell you the simple steps.

ANNUAL MEETING.

St. Jude's Juniors held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the school room with the superintendent, Mrs. George W. J. Scott, presiding. After the devotions the reports of the officers were received and they were most encouraging. The treasurer's report showed the branch to be in a good position financially. The total amount raised was $56.47. Last year the Juniors' general pledge was increased from $9 to $11 and, although it had been a short year, the branch met all its pledges and gave small offerings to special appeals. After the business meeting, ice cream and cake were served.
