

The Evening Times Star

PAGES NINE TO SIXTEEN

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1922

SEVENTEEN PAGES

DR. ROBERT HERDOD

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SOME OF THE HITS OF THE DUMBELLS
The long-heralded "Dumbells Revue of 1922" will be given its first local presentation at the Imperial Theatre, Wednesday evening next...

EXPECT REQUESTS TO MODIFY THE VOLSTEAD ACT

U. S. Treasury Looks for Proposals as Result of Tuesday's Vote.
Washington, Nov. 8.—Proposals for legislation modifying the Volstead act with request to the sale of beer and light wines were regarded today at the treasury as extremely likely as a result of the outcome of Tuesday's election.

LOCAL NEWS

THE FIRST SNOW
St. John today experienced its first real snow storm of the season. This was the first snow of the season to remain on the ground. The first snow was on November 7. It remained for two days and then melted.

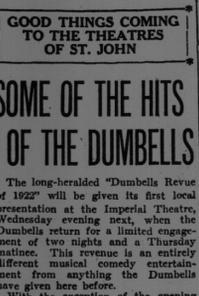

HOME FROM ONTARIO

Rev. David Hutchinson, D. D., arrived home today from Toronto, where last week he attended a meeting of the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board. On Sunday he went to Boston, Ont., where he preached anniversary sermons in the South Baptist church.

CLAYTON CO.

Successors to Mark N. Powers, the oldest undertaking firm in the city.
85 Princess Street Phone M. 713 Established 1848

NOTICES OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS, 50 CENTS

TARINI PRASAD SINHA

NINETEEN MORE THAN THE DEMOCRATS

Latest U. S. Election Figures—London Opinion on Tuesday's Turnover.
New York, Nov. 9.—Returns from all but three congressional districts where results were still undetermined at noon today show: 224 Republicans; 205 Democrats; 1 Socialist; 1 Independent; 1 Farmer-Labor, elected to the new house of representatives.

NURSES' HOME FOR HOSPITAL IN FREDERICTON

Can Have Wing of D. S. C. R. Building—Aged Saint John Man Sheltered in the Police Station.
(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 9.—P. J. Hughes of the Board of Trustees of the Victoria Public Hospital has received advice from Ottawa, giving permission for the use of the east wing of the D. S. C. R. hospital as a nurses' home for the hospital. It has been declared feasible to move the structure a couple of hundred yards to the Victoria Hospital property. To do that the building will be cut in two.

TURKS CUT CABLE

(Continued from page 1.)
The British reply to this proposal has not yet been received.
London, Nov. 9.—Great Britain refuses to purchase peace with the Turks at the cost of "humiliation and disgrace," Marquis Curzon, British secretary for foreign affairs, declared yesterday. The attitude of the Kemalists reflected in their recent demand that the British troops leave Constantinople would not be tolerated, he added, and he gave flat warning to the Kemalists that they would come sure disaster if they ventured to oppose their military power to the strength of Great Britain and the might of Europe.

RESIGNATION OF CRERAR READY

Toronto, Nov. 9.—A Winnipeg special to the Star says—Hon. T. A. Crerar's resignation from the leadership of the Progressive group in the federal House of Commons has been written, signed and will be read at the Progressive gathering here on Friday.
The resignation will be the valdictory paragraph of his address which will be "an accounting of his stewardship" as the federal leader of the Progressives.

QUEEN SQUARE CHURCH TEA

The ladies of Queen Square Methodist church are holding a tea and sale this afternoon and evening in the Sunday school room. The conveners of the various committees are as follows: Tea, Mrs. Thomas Evans, Mrs. A. B. Gilmour and Mrs. J. R. Cope; home cooking, Mrs. Fred Law; fancy work, Mrs. Hetherington; book, Mrs. James Toole and Mrs. Frances White, and candy, Mrs. Clayton Reed. They are being assisted by other ladies of the church.

ABSENTEE JURORS ARE FINED $30

Before His Honor Judge Armstrong in County Court Chambers at noon today application was made by H. A. Powell, K. C., for a reserve case in the matter of The King versus Samuel Sewell. The grounds of the application were alleged wrongful admission of evidence and faults in the judge's charge to the jury. His Honor said he would consider the application and give judgment on Tuesday. W. M. Ryan appeared for the Crown.
In the Circuit Court this morning fines of $30 each were struck against five jurors who were absentees at the opening of the Court. Chief Justice McKeown presided. There no cases and adjournment was made sine die.

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

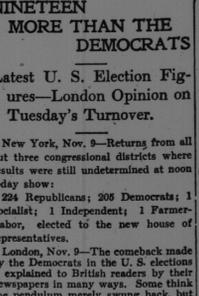

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

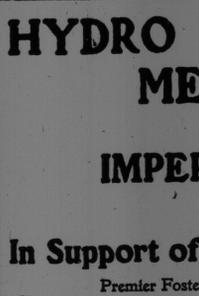

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

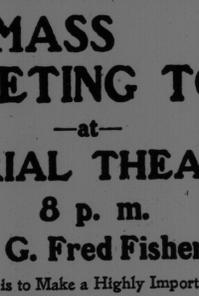

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

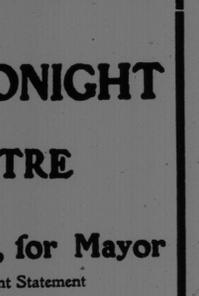

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

HEAR STORY OF LOSS OF DREAM IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Six Witnesses Heard at Inquest This Morning—No Freight on Upper Deck, Says Captain.
The coroner's inquest into the circumstances surrounding the loss of five lives when the steamer Dream went to the bottom of the St. John river on October 20, was begun this morning in Adam's Hall, Evansdale, before Coroner Dr. DuVeret Jack. The jury men were sworn in and the evidence of six witnesses taken. It is hoped to conclude the inquest today.
Captain C. W. McLean, master of the steamer, swore that there had been no freight on the upper deck on the day of the accident and that no freight had been taken from the steamer D. J. Purdy which was said to have been around the same day. The steamer had not been leaking and that no hole had been found in her bottom after she was raised.

HYDRO MASS MEETING TONIGHT

IMPERIAL THEATRE
8 p. m.
In Support of G. Fred Fisher, for Mayor
Premier Foster is to Make a Highly Important Statement
G. FRED FISHER,
Roy Willet, Gordon Kribs, Herbert Phillips and K. H. Smith of the Dominion Waterpowers' Commission will speak.
Hear the Truth about Musquash and St. John's Opportunity — also St. John's danger.
The Power Company's Campaign and the Mayor's Campaign will be dealt with fully.

KILLS EAGLE STEALING PIGS

Farmer Shoots Big Bird in Act of Flying Off With Victim.
Cape May, N. J., Nov. 9.—Arthur Wilson, a farmer living on the old Highbee farm at Town Bank, on the Delaware Bay shore, four miles north of this city, has been missing pigs for the last few days. In the night he heard a commotion in his barnyard and discovered a large eagle preparing to fly away with a pig.
Wilson promptly shot the eagle, which measured 3 feet from tip to tip of his wings.

SEEK AMUSEMENT TAX ON ALL PROCESSIONS

London, Oct. 26.—(By Mail)—The customs and excise authorities are going to tap another source of revenue. They have announced that royal processions, public funerals, Lord Mayors' shows, and other processions are entertainments within the meaning of the act. The result will be that any person who receives money for accommodation to view such processions must pay the entertainment tax.
PRESBYTERIAN BUDGET.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—It is announced by Rev. Dr. Laird, treasurer of the Presbyterian Church that for the nine months ended September 30, 1922, budget reports at the Toronto office of the church totalled $865,000, or practically the same amount as last September 30, one year ago. He says that expenditures to September 30, this year were $848,000, or approximately $17,000 more than in the same period last year. At the Halifax office a total of $22,949 had been received from congregations for the budget, a slight increase over the year before.

WIRELESS TO ARCTIC

Chain of Stations Planned by Dominion Government.
Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 9.—Federal plans for a chain of wireless stations extending right into the Arctic Circle are being completed. The stations will be operated by the Dominion government, with the primary purpose of keeping federal officials in touch with one another. The locations for the proposed stations are Fort Smith, Resolute, Simpson, Norman and McPherson on the Mackenzie and the sixth at Dawson City.
LIQUOR-MAKING CASE.
Charles Smith, to whose premises in Nelson street, West side, the liquor inspectors paid a visit on Tuesday and found a small still and some mash, has given himself up, and was expected to be before the police magistrate this afternoon in connection with the seizure.
Use the Want Ad. Way

Only Two Days More To Participate in This Successful and Interesting $20,000.00 November Drive FOR BIGGER BUSINESS
All departments vie with each other in making Friday and Saturday of such interest to you with special goods and special prices that these two days bid well to surpass all records.
November Drive Special Mannish Tweed Coats $19.75 each
A surprisingly good line of popular mannish "Burberry style" coats in just the most called for shades of greens and browns. Sizes 16 to 38.
November Drive $19.75 each
November Drive Silk Underskirts
Special lot of taffeta and Jersey silk underskirts in dark or light colors. A large choice. Regular up to $8.75.
November Drive $4.85 each
Extra fine English silk moire underskirts in navy, brown, purple, black. Regular $6.95. November Drive $3.98 each
Serge and Tricotine Dresses—November Drive $14.85
Yes, you'd pay perhaps as much as $24.50 for no better dresses. Navy and black tricotines and serges. Some very smart styles in the choice. Sizes 18 to 40.
November Drive $14.85 each
London House
F. W. DANIEL & CO. Head of King St.