LEFT $50.00 TO FOUR DOGS. Chicago Woman's Heirs, However, Produce Another Will in Court.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Claims of an Arkansas orphan asylum, four dogs, and a score of relatives to the $50,000 estate of Mrs. Margaret Howard, who was adjudicated by Probate Judge Henry Horner. The production of two alleged wills naming different heirs and

Three months before the death, Mrs. Howard asked C. Leemon, an attorney, to execute a will for her, in which her property was placed in trust for the benefit of her four dogs. A sister, Mrs. Tillie Leight, was to receive $500, and after the death of the dogs, the entire estate was to go to the Arkansas Children's Home at Little Rock.

Relatives declare that just before her death, Mrs. Howard made a new will disregarding the dogs and dividing the estate with the signatures cut off, was produced in today's hearing.
