THE ABBOT AND CRESCUS.

Mr. Gears this afternoon wired the managers of the Reading track that he accepted of the offer of Mr. Ketcham of a $20,000 purse for a race between the Abbot and Crescus, providing the winner takes the whole purse. Gears said: "I am ready to meet Crescus. Ketcham is a trifle queer about this thing. He agreed to meet me at Hartford and then decided he would not, so I can't tell what he will do."

"You can say for me to the people that the Abbot stands ready to meet Crescus whenever that horse is ready."

FOOTBALL.

Local Situation.

At a meeting of the Trinity Church Athletic Association last evening, arrangements were made for a practice match between the Royals of Charlottetown and the Athletics of the 17th instant.

The formation of a local football league was also discussed, and it was decided to communicate with the other city teams in reference thereto. From present indications the league will probably consist of the Y. M. C. A., Royals, Beavers, St. Mark's and Trinity teams.

The Y. M. C. A. team, it is understood, is trying to arrange a practice game with the Trinity and the Beavers, to take place on Saturday next. All members of the Trinity and Beaver teams are requested to be at the Athletic grounds for practice this afternoon at five o'clock.

SWIMMING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Peter S. McNally has abandoned his attempt to swim from Boston to New York in 30 days and has returned to his home city.

McNally says the elements were against him, having smashed two of his dories and taken one of his attendants.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 11.—In the one mile championship swimming race between the Royal of San Francisco and the Wilburn R. Kyle of this city, Brewer won in 25 minutes 34 seconds, breaking the American amateur record of 25:33.5, which was made by Otto Wahl at the Pan American exposition on July 5.

LABOUCHERE'S GOSSIP.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The late Dowager Empress Frederick's relations with Count Sackendorff, the grand master of her court, had been the subject of international gossip long before her death. It had been frequently said that she was married to the count. Truth today makes the following unqualified statement concerning her will: "The fact has transpired that a legacy of three millions marks was left to Count Sackendorff, with whom her late majesty is alleged to have contracted a morganatic marriage."

GRAND TRUNK FATALITY.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Sept. 10.—A special freight on the Grand Trunk crashed into an empty special passenger train at midnight last night, near Woodstock, Ontario, killing 30.

The freight and conductor, Harmon of the passenger train were killed. Several other trainmen were injured. The accident was caused by the neglect of the trainmen on the passenger train to bring the train back to flag the approaching train.

Arthur Drysdale and Parker McJeffrey have been selected by the liberals at Windsor. Premier Murray and John Morrison were again selected to contest Victoria County, C. B., for the liberals.

ARMENIAN MASSACRES FEARED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 10.—Fifty Armenian revolutionists, according to Turkish reports, recently set fire to the Mussulman quarters at Mush, Turkish Armenia, where fighting afterwards occurred, the Armenians retreating towards Sassoun. It is also reported that Armenians and Turks blew up the barracks at Sassoun Sept. 3, where 3,000 troops were stationed, and that a state of panic prevailed there in consequence. Such Turkish reports have previously been forewarnings of massacres of Armenians, and it is generally apprehended by non-Mussulmans here that massacres have already taken place.
