ALL-CANADIAN PROTECTION.

Those who claim that tariff protection benefits a few at the expense of many are fond of describing that policy as the policy of Eastern Canada, whose manufacturers desire to enrich themselves from the pockets of the agriculturists of the West.

STILL GROWING.

The average daily circulation of the Star for the month of April was 5,784, this being an increase of 192 copies daily over the record of March, which in turn was ahead of the record of any previous month in the history of this paper.

The following comparison of the Star's circulation during the April of its existence tells a story which requires no elaboration:

Table showing circulation statistics for various months from April 1901 to April 1904.

MR. TARTE'S COMMENTS.

Speaking of one of the troublous scenes in the house of commons, Mr. Tarte says in La Patrie: "The prime minister, usually calm and cool, lost patience."

WITH ADVERTISERS.

The sale of clothing now on at J. N. Harvey's store, Union street, has created record-breaking sales.
