POOR DOCUMENT

THE RESERVE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 20, 1901.

THE LAST NIGHT OF THE PLAY.

The elegant Lord Courtleigh, who, when lacking grease-paint and the manners of a peer, was the ignoble Harrison Wade, words—Could he see her after the last act? pushed Bentley into the first wing, with his and her affirmative reply she made in back hard sup against the switchboard. even less. "You'll be all right here, old man," he whis- At the end of the play he met her at the pered. "You can see first rate, and won't stage entrance, and the two went forth into be in the way till the stage manager shows the street together. up at the end of the act to ring the curtain down and turn the footlights out. It you want to know anything, ask him. Here's her purse and two unmailed letters in one where I go on. I'll see you at the end of hand. As they walked the rew blocks from commoners in the accepted manner of a peer of the stage; and Bentley devoted himself to his first back-door study of a play. The whom he had known at eighteen had grown offering was one of the overgrown English into a woman of such splendid lines. melodramas of the Drury Lane Theatre brand-a play made up of some dozen alsolely for the opportunities they offered for the display of startling stage effects—and ing. I believe I'll let you mail them, if you tall young woman of easeful carriage, who cate way of informing managers that we are with a filmy parasol, had caught his gaze "It seems rather odd to find you an actthe minute Wade had nushed him into the wing, and to her, his yes wandered again.

stage," he said. "But what do you expect? wore a Gainsborough hat, and prodded out of a job." Despite the emphasis of greace paint and What are you going to demand?' black lines he could see that her face was "Nothing. I shall take the be worth as many glances as a man had time

What part does she have—the lady with the great black hat?" Bentley asked of the

She shook her head and smiled frankly—the same frank smile that had charned him in earlier days.

"Lady Singleton," came the whispered reply.

Bentley ran his eyes down his play bill they reach "lady Singleton," then across the dotted lines. Gertrude Maitland was her name. As his eyes remained upon her he began to be possessed by a vague sense of something familiar about her presence? Where had he seen her before? And if he had not seen her before? And if he had not seen her before? And if he had not seen her before? And mind the charned him in earlier days.

She shook her head and smiled frankly—the same frank smile that had charned him in earlier days.

"I cannot say definitely what the charned him in earlier days.

"I cannot say definitely what the charned him in earlier days.

"I was no expectation of being a leading woman the coming season, or any season.

I hardly desire the position. It is unit in me to fill it. Don't think I am morbid; I'm not I once had ambition—you know that —and would have done very well had I had talent in proportion. But I am not an artist; I am just an artizan."

"But perhaps if you were given a big opportunity you would find that you have unsuspected powers."

Again she shook her head. "I have had mited to probate and letters testament, and while there had the premier to London, the premier to London, and while there had the premier to London, the premier to London, when the premier to London, and while there had there had the premier to London, and while there had the premier to London, Mr. Chamberlain, and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official conferences with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official conferences with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official conferences with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official conferences with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official conferences with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Landowne, as well as the principal official c in the past where their lines of life had in that she was an actress, and that the per ple before him were merely playing at life. He saw her handkerchief flutter downward. Instinctively he started forward.

and missed. "Great God!" he cried, in a

The ejaculation reached Bentley's ears and brought him to his senses, but already he was stooping at Miss Maitland's side, with one hand closing on the bit of cambric. Then whispered words descended to him in another voice-her voice: "Don't go off the stage. Pretend to be talking to me, but don't speak aloud !"

He straightened up and handed her the handkerchief. In doing this he looked her squarely in the face and his eyes now saw beneath her makcup. He started back. "Harriet !" he cried, involuntarily. At down she whispered, "Pretend to excuse yourself. Don't speak." Bentley caught the cue, and to those be yond the footlights seemed to be making profuse apology. She smiled her forgive ness, took a step nearer to him and began to move her lips as though talking. When she ceased he in turn made dumb show of speech. A couple of minutes of this word less conversation and she whispered, "When I tell you to, walk across the stage into the opposite wing. You must bow to me when

She waited half a minute. "Now," she whispered.

Bentley made pretence of uttering words of parting, raised his hat, bowed, and with what ease he could command, escaped into the safety of the right wing. The stage manager, half a dozen actors, and outside of these a fringe of stage hands, were nerv-

With these Bentley passed some words— he did not know what—then pushed through them and made his way to a chair at the back of the stage. And it was she!-it was really she! Gertrude Maitland-evidently that was just her stage name. Strange that he should meet her in such a manner! No, not strange, either. Why any more strange that after seven years they should come together on the stage of a theatre than that they should meet by chance on the street? He wondered if she still felt toward him as she once did for his behavior in the affair that had sent them apart. And he wonexcusable pride, if she had heard of his rapid rise to a high place among the younger lawyers of the city. His wandering with might have touched questioningly upon every change and incident of the past sever years had not the curtain dropped just then and brought him eagerly to his feet.

Bentley watched his chance and succeeded in catching Miss Maitland somewhat apart from the other actors. She gave him an open smile as he came up, and the glad light in her eyes brought him an immense that the figure of love and held out her hands to smile of love and held out her hands to smile of love and held out her hands to

They were sitting alone in one of the parlors of her hotel, she with her hat on and the theatre he had unconsciously watched Lord Courtleigh caught his cue and saun-tered onto the stage, staring loftily through her life on the stage, instead of giving to his monocle at the other play nobles and her mannerisms and affectations, had de-

Her eyes fell upon the letters that lay between the two sections of her purse. most unrelated incidents, tied together "Oh, I see I forgot to drop these in a box. the display of startling stage effects—and ing. I believe I'll let you mail them, if you this performance closed the company's sea-will. You see they are addressed to two son. In time Bentley wearied of the per- dramatic papers. I am ordering the usual formance, and his attention shifted from card inserted in each, 'Miss Gertrude Maitthe play to the players. One of them, a 'and, at liberty." 'At liberty' is our deli-

"Then you are not going to stand for first lady or nothing?' She shook her head and smiled frankly-chances-good ones. No one could ask for the position of the colony isin the past where their lines of life had in tersected; nor could he locate any one of better. You see, I have a good face, a better. You see, I have a good face, a the details of our proposals. All I can the details of our proposals. All I can plies to appeal from decision of judge of the details of our proposals. It is that the imperial government appropriately in the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. The details of our proposals are the details of our proposals. At length the shifting about of the stage and I know how to carry myself on the learn to his side of the stage. Don't think I am enumerating these say is that the imperial government appears to thoroughly understand the grievances under which the colony suffers, In his mental search for the elusive personality that he could not quite close upon Bentley forgot that he was in a theatre, that she was in a theatre, chances for me. I did not fail, and I did not succeed I was just mediocre."

Somehow Bentley liked the perfectly ealthy manner in which she made estimate The stage manager made a grab at him, of herself. She was as simple and as charming as of old.

"But what of the future?" he asked. "The future?" She looked dreamily through the open window into the broad street. "I'm twenty-five now—neither very young nor hopelessly old. If there's anything in one he shows promise of it at twenty-five. I have not. So since I am not going to rise I see my future clearly. At forty I shall have grown rather stout. I shall then have changern parts, and be At forty I shall have grown rather stout. I shall then have chappen parts, and be the prosaic and stately aunt. At sixty I shall be the fine old gray-haired lady of the stage; somebody's mother or grandmother—the hero's or heroine's perhaps. After that—I don't know. Possibly seventy will dind me still playing."

"You intend to stick to the stage to the and?"

wen a person of taient. I am just a working woman. I am not a stenographer or a not secretary of the Cabot Club, which a not a secretary of the Cabot Club, which gives him a dinner tonight at the American much on the stage."

Her face had become grave as she talked. She now gave Bentley a frank, womanly smile.

For Sore Throat or pain in the chest, with cold, apply Bentley's Liniment on smile.

"I must seem to you to have grown into soulless unenthusiastic woman," she said. a soulless, unenthusiastic woman," she said.
"But I am not—I don't think I was intended for the stage"
"No, I don't think you were," Bentley.

agreed, with a meaning not in exact accordance with hers.

agreed, with a meaning not in exact accordance with hers.

"All the same, I am on it, so don't forget to mail the letters, Allan."

It thrilled him strangely to have her call him Allan, as she had used to do before. He rose and moved to her side. The tenderness within him tried to force him to an explosive utterance which should make known all at once. But he controlled this and spoke steadily enough.

'If you were offered a position as leading lady would you take it?' he asked.

'No, I think not. I am not fit for it. But there is no likelihood of any manager making me such an offer."

"But I know such a man. I know a man who would like to have you for his leading lady. Harriet!"

"You do?" She looked up questioningly, and caught his meaning from his tense face.

and caught his meaning from his tense face. She drew a quick breath, flushed, and her she drew a quick "reach, hished, and her eyes went down. "Oh!" she said.

He ventured to put a hand upon her shoulder. "And you? Will you take it?"

"Perhaps I am not competent," she whis-that had sent them apart. And he wondered how it was that she was now an actives. And he wondered with a flush of riet! The mistake I made years ago! Will

you. dearest?"
He felt her tremble beneath his hand. "I was not thinking of -- of taking such a position. The company—what will it ba?"

He bent low over her and whispered, "A company of two—a leading lady and a leading man. Your part that of a sweetheart, dear—a part that you will always keep."

Sha was silent for more than a minute.

relief. He had lialf feared her greeting, but the way in which she smiled showed at once that she had forgotten and forgiven.

They had but a moment together, for she went on at the beginning of the next act,

Mother and Doctor Too Until the doctor comes, and for minor ills and accidents, the mother must doctor her family. Tens of thousands of mothers have relied upon JOHNSON'S ANODYNR LINIMENT, and have found it always reliable. It is used both externally and internally and it is the remedy for inflammation from any cause. Used continually for 90 years as a household remedy, its sustained popularity and increasing use every year are the best possible testimonials to its curative powers.

is of greatest value in treating colic, cramps, diarrhæa, cholere morbus, bites, bruises, burns, stings, chafing, colds, coughs, croup, caiarrh, bronchitis, la grippe, lameness, muscle soreness and pain and inflammation in any part of the body. Bold in two size bettlen, Ma and the The larger size is more economical. If your dealer ham's it send to us. Ack first. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Maco

THE FRENCH SHORE QUESTION

Hon. E. P. Morris, of Newfoundland, Inter

They are merely parts of my trade equipment. Managers saw them and made hances for me. I did not feil and I did was discussed at the conference, Mr. Morris said: "The Bond-Blaine treaty was not discussed, although it is not unlikely that the premier may bring it to the notice of Mr. Chamberlain before leaving London. That treaty stands in exactly the position it did when it was entered into, just ten years ago."

When asked if there was any question and while the people of the colony are strength of the institutions of the Ameri can republic, they are, at the same time firm adherents to the British crown. "But much good would come to both Newfoundland and the United States, especially to the United States, by the en-this instant there was a pause in the stage conversation, and Bentley's word was heard in the farthest corner of the house.

Miss Maitland bowed stiffly, and said aloud: "You are mistaken, my lord! This is Lady Singleton!"

She bowed again, and while her head was down she whispered, "Pretend to excuse down she whispered, "Pretend to excuse words. At the moment he had recognized the rought he had stifled had found new life and since had been growing toward the ferword seven years before.

end?"

"I probably shall have to if I live."

"If one loves his work I suppose it seems to her word to continue on to the very end."

Mr. Morris said trade was never in a better or more flourishing condition, but particular and special attention was being given to the development of the colony. That the government of the colony during the past ten years had exhausted the resources in the construction of railways, and that now it onstruction of radways, and that now it only awaited capital to bring about a great industrial boom in the colony.

At the train Mr. Morris was met by were a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work
even a person of talent. I am just a work eve

with cold, apply Bentley's Liniment on

Mrs. Meddergrass—The paper says that most o' the Rooshians is ignorant people.

Mr Meddergrass—Well, now, I sh'd think they'd have to be purty smart to under-stand their own language.—Baltimore Ame-

Probate. The will of Captain Charles W. Starviewed in Boston on Return from England | key has been admitted to probate and letout of a job."

"It seems rather odd to find you an actress; I did not even know you were on the stage," he said. "But what do you expect? What are you going to demand?"

"What are you going to demand?"

"Nothing. I shall take the best that is offered."

"The Hon. E. P. Morris, K. C., of Newfoundland, who reached New York from London by the Majestic on Thursday, was at the Touraine yesterday, where he told a Post reporter about his trip, with Mr. Bond, the Newfoundland premier, on a mission bearing on the French shore question.

"The Hon. E. P. Morris, K. C., of Newfoundland, who reached New York from London by the Majestic on Thursday, was at the Touraine yesterday, where he told a Post reporter about his trip, with Mr. Bond, the Newfoundland premier, on a mission bearing on the French shore question.

ouestion.

When asked what the likleihood of a settlement was, Mr. Morris said:

"I cannot say definitely what the chances of a settlement are. I was a delegate with the premier to London."

The will of Richard Daley has been admitted to his sister, Thomas Sleep, of Kingston, Kings county. The estate is $4,400, personal property; Alex. W. Macrae, proctor.

The will of Richard Daley has been admitted to his sister, Thomas Sleep, of Kingston.

Kings county. The estate is $4,400, personal property; Alex. W. Macrae, proctor.

Burning Scaly Instantly Relieved by One Application of

Complete Externed and Internal Treatment Consisting of CUT A SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and son. VETTCUTA Offitment, to instantly allow technic and irritation and soothe and heal, and CUTTCUTA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set is often sufficient to cure the severest humour.

Conservative Claim.

"I suppose you think you have the greatest climate in the country," said the tourist.
"No,' answered the man who was suffering from a cold. "We don't claim the greatest in that line But we do claim the largest variety."—Washington Star.

Kumfort Headache Powders.

and secretary of the Cabot Club, which gives him a dinner tonight at the American House.—Boston Post.

For Sore Throat or pain in the chest,

During a late storm in Denver the birds suffered greatly. Those resting on telegraph and telephone wires were beheaded by other wires striking them. They were killed by hundreds.

For whooping cough and croup, Vapo-Cresolene is a simple and perfect remedy.

I've just found out how J. Pierpont Morgan must have proposed to his wife.

How?

He probably said: 'Darling, will you put yourself in my trust?"—Exchange.

Doctors agree on two points:

That grippe and consumption kill more people than all other diseases. That SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE cures more colds, coughs, grippe and all manner of lung troubles than all other remedies. It soothes the inflamed tissues, heals the sore lungs, loosens the cough and restores health and vigor. 25c. per bottle.

S. C. WELLS & CO., Proprietors, Toronto, Canada.

WHITE ENAMEL IRON BEDS--Brass Trimmings.

A SPLENDID LINE OF THESE GOODS NOW SHOWING.

Has Bow Foot, Half Brass,

$14.50 Has Bow Foot and Brass Arched Top Rails.

I can take a semi

$18.50

FREDERICTON NEWS.

Two Slight Fires --- Property Purchase --- Investigating Tax Collecting.

Fredericton, N. B., April 17-(Special)-The firemen were called out at noon today to put out a fire on the roof of P. Burns' building, King street. The damage was small.

Again at 5 o'clock there was a fire on the roof of John Palmer's Queen street tannery. The damage was slight.

Corp. Flewelling and Pte. Brown, of the R. C. I., have purchased their discharges. They are both St. John men. Corporal was small. Flewelling served in the Yukon and South Africa.
The Dunphy Hotel at the corner of King and Westmorland streets, has been purchased by Mr. H. W. Estabrooks for There is a rumor that the late secretary-treasurer of York was in Chicago recently, and that he will locate at Seattle,

A. McN. Shaw, M. A. Finn, and John
L. Carleton are among St. John visitors

The city tax collecting is being investigated and Deputy Collector Roberts was gared and beputy contents hosters as before a civic committee. A second collector had been appointed and when he called on some for taxes they showed receipts, having already paid.

PAPER MAKERS STILL OUT. Quebec Labor Trouble in Company Controlled by Alger and Van Horne.

Grand Mere, Que, April 17-(Special)- the earnings of a few and decreasing those of a large number of the employes.

A restoration of the old scale was refused and the strikers now demand an increase before they return to work. Inis company is controlled by Russell A. Alger and Sir William VanHorne.

the St. John Iron Works, and Alian Bros., in Carleton, are out, while in Fleming's only a small number are on strike, as a large number of non-union men work in the foundry.

The iron moulders state that they are determined to fight the question out, company is controlled by Russell A. Alger the foundry.

and Sir William VanHorne.

Later—About two-thirds of the strikers determined to fight the question out, have signified their willingness to accept the new schedule of wages and will go be just as firm in their determination to I shall name the wedding day.

Mrs. H. R. Emmerson's Funeral.

mainder left town today.

Dorchester, April 17. (Special)—The fun-eral of the late Mrs. H. R. Emmerson Admitted There is a Case at Ann Arbor, took place from the Emmerson residence at 11 o'clock this morning. Prior to leaving the house, services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thomas, pastor of Dorchester Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Steel, of Amherst, Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, of Moncton, Rev. Mr. Macaulay of Sackville, and Rev. Mr. Harrison, of Dorchester A layers preparation of the citizens as friends in all parts of the dominion. The who attends Mr. Hare, wears in the sick remains were taken to Moncton by the rooom a germproof rubber garment that C. P. R. in a special car. Many from here covered him from head to foot, attended the funeral there. At Moncton, with two little eyeholes for sight. Whenservice was held in the Baptist church, eyer he goes into the contagious ward he after which the body was taken to the injects preventive doses of serum into himself. Rural Cémetery where interment took place. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Andrew H. Jones, M. B. Jones, B. N. Jones, H. Atkinson, F. W. Emmerson, and H. C. Reid.

About a Dam at Loch Lomond.

road at certain points. It is claimed that plague had been reported, but word was it is caused by a dam, the property of Messis. More and Mooney, which backs alarm. Mes-rs. Moore and Mooney, which backs up the water to such an extent that it overflows the highway. The attention of the government has been called to the matter and the government have ordered matter and the government have ordered has taken a keen interest in politics ever since he left Christ Church College. He was an attache at Washington before he bean inspection to be made and, if possible, prevent further flooding. The proprietors Mooney was out yesterday and will, however, have some repairs made.

$200.00 IN CASH PRIZES. - OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY. Have you watched its growth? In 1881 we had a population of 4,336,504. In 1897, when the last census were taken, we had 4,845,377 of a population, an increase of 508,873. The problem now is: What will be the population of the Dominion of Canada when the official census are taken in April, 1901?

How the Prize Money will be divided:

Total number of prizes, 19, amounting to$200 00 OUR OFFER! Anyone who sends me 25 cents in silver or Postal Note for a ECLIPSE WRITING PACKAGE, which will contain 50 sheets of Writing Paper and 50 Envelopes, will be entitled to one guess, and you can guess as often as you send 250 for the Box of Paper, you get the guess FREE.

for the Box of Paper, you get the guess FREE.

YOUR GUESS; When you send in your 25c, you make your guess. Be sure and write your name, your address, and guess as plainly as possible. As soon as your letter is received your Guess is Registered, and we will fill out and send you a Certificate corresponding with guess made by you. We file the duplicate. If you are a winner will notify you as soon as possible after the Commissioner of Census at Ottawa has publicly announced the Official Figures. Until then no one will know the correct figures. We will run this contest fairly and squarely, and deal honestly with all men. This contest will close May 1st, 1901, and the prize winners will be announced in this

Send in your order today. Your secretary is not complete without a Box of Writing paper. Sent postpaid to any address in Canada or the U. S. A., on receipt of Address all orders to JAS. T. UTTLEY, DOON, ONT., CANADA.

A STRIKE IS ON.

Iron Workers in St. John Shops Go Out.

The Iron Moulders' Association, at meeting some time ago, decided to ask for an increase of 25 cents per day from The 600 paper makers employed in the the employers of union men. This remills of the Laurentide Pulp and Paper quest the association forwarded to the Company, who struck work Monday even-foundry men of this city and, receiving Maud, twice widowed ("sod and grass"), company, who struck work Monday evening, are still out. The mills are completely closed down and the 150 men who did not strike remain on guard at the mill. There has been no demonstration on the part of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and some of the paper makers are located to the total control of the strikers and the strikers are strikers and the strikers and the strikers and the strikers are strikers. part of the strikers and some of the paper makers are leaving town today to vance was given. Only one foundry, the Recently a new scale of wages was introduced by the management of the mill, which would have the effect of increasing which would have the effect of increasing those out to strike.

It is stated that all the iron moulders are out on strike.

in the employ of McLean & Holt and the St. John Iron Works, and Allan Bros.,

back to work tomorow morning. The re- give no increase in wages.

BUBONIC PLAGUE.

ville, and Rev. Mr. Harrison, of Dorchester. A large proportion of the citizens, as well as many strangers, friends and relatives, amongst others the lieutenant governor, Premier Tweedie and Hon. L. P. Farris, attended. The beautiful steel there would be no spread of the disease, as all precautions had been taken. gray casket enclosing the remains was as all precautions had been taken to covered by numerous wreaths, the last prevent it. He also said that the student tribute of friendship and esteem from would recover. Dr. Frederick G. Novy, friends in all parts of the dominion. The who attends Mr. Hare, wears in the sick sor and his assistant, who were conduct plague bacilli, caught the disease and died.

Dr. Vaughan said that he was prepared Complaints have been made concerning yesterday to go to another city in Michi-the flooded condition of the Loch Lomond gan from which a supposed case of the an inspection to be made and, if possible, since he let consist Curren Conege. The prevent further flooding. The proprietors of the dam claim the condition of the road is not due to their dam. Mr. Newfoundland as secretary to the royal com-

Never belittle your own acts. People are very apt to take you at your estimate. -Chicago News.

Some men find it so hard to get enough to drink that they don't bother about anything to eat.

To Marry or Not to Marry.

Mother says, "be in no hurry, Marriage oft' means care and worry." Auntie says, with manner grave "Wife is synonyme for slave."

Sister, crooning to her twins, Sighs, "With marriage care begins." Grandma, near life's closing days, They must know—and yet, dear me, When in Harry's eyes I see

All the world of love there burning-"Life without it is not worth

Choice of Terms.

"Why didn't you come last evening, as you promised?" his sweetheart asked him severely.

"I had to attend a pound party."

"I am so glad Brother George said he thought he saw you at the slugging match."

—Philadelphia Times.

"What we hav'nt we're after and if you are in the market for fencing we wo like to have you consider the merits of the "Pag Fence. Coiled Wire, made in our own Wire M woven by ourselves. Shipped already to put The PAGE WIRE FENCE CO. (Ltd.) WALKERVILLE, ONT.

