On Nomination day four candidates were nominated at the Court House, in Digby, viz: A. W. Savary, Jovite E. Le-Blanc, Anselm M. Comeau and Calvin Raymond. Mr. Savary was the first to speak, and occupied the time from 10 45 to 145 o'clock—within fifteen minutes of the hour appointed for closing the Returning Officer's (Sheriff Smith's) court.

Mr. Comeau made a few remarks, and Mr. Comeau made a few remarks, and then Mr. Raymond took the stand. The speeches were delivered in front of the Court House. A minute or two before 2 o'clock, while Mr. Raymond was addressing the electors, and the attention of nearly ing the electors, and the attention of nearly all parties was engaged outside, Mr. Savary and one of his friends entered the Court House and asked the Sheriff if the other candidates had filed the proof of their qualification. The Sheriff answered in the negative, and then Mr. Savary filed Friday, Aug. 23rd.
