

Adjournment Debate

detracts from the important job that must be done at Canada's next constitutional conference, namely, the enshrining of the specific rights of Canada's native peoples in the new charter of fundamental rights and freedoms.

The minister accepts the report of the judicial council. Its conclusions have been made apparent. Enough has been said in this House and in the public media. A much more important issue lies ahead.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at two o'clock in the afternoon.

At 10:30 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
