

The image shows a page from the Chinese newspaper 'Wen Wei Po' (文汇报). The top right corner features a large advertisement for 'Montreal Trust REAL ESTATE DEPARTMENT' with a sun-like logo and the slogan '滿地可實業公司'. Below this is a portrait of a woman, identified as '許孫少儀 Patsy Hui'. The page is filled with numerous real estate listings, each preceded by a small black triangle icon. The ads are written in Chinese and describe various properties such as houses, flats, and commercial spaces, including details like location, size, and price. Some ads mention specific features like swimming pools or modern designs. The overall layout is dense with text and icons.
